

Obituary

Mr. Matthew Ingram was born on June 21, 1932, in Barnwell County South Carolina. He was the oldest of three children born to William Hankerson and Eula Lee Ingram. He departed this life on Tuesday, June 27, 2023 at his home, in Columbia, South Carolina.

Matthew joined Trinity Baptist Church at an early age and was baptized in the Christian Faith and Commitment. He was a member of the Trustee Board. Matthew was united in holy matrimony to Marie Horton on June 4, 1956. To their union, two children were born: William, and Brenda.

He was preceded in death by his parents, William Hankerson and Eula Lee Ingram; wife, Marie Horton Ingram; four siblings, Robert Ingram Garrett, Sarah Frances Ingram Osbourne, Sherron Hankerson Stewart, and Elizabeth Albright Goodwin.

Matthew graduated from C.A. Johnson High School and enlisted in the United States Air Force where he gained the rank of sergeant. After serving his country, he continued his civic duty at Fort Jackson Military Installation as an intake processor until his retirement.

Matthew leaves to mourn his passing: children, William Ingram (Regenia), and Brenda Donaldson (Mark); five grandchildren, William Ingram, Jr., Bryan Ingram, Quinton Brown, Courtney Donaldson, and Crystal Donaldson; one great granddaughter, Aaliyah Brown; a host of other loving relatives and friends.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little - but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.*

*For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's Plan,
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss Me - But Let Me Go.*
