

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took His hand when I heard His call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found the peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart, and peace to thee-
God wanted me now; He has set me free.*

Obituary

Mrs. Mae Belle “Pineapple” Landy was born December 10, 1940, in Perry, South Carolina. She was the daughter of the late Lillie Bell Jenkins (Wyman, Sr.) Quattlebaum and the late Grover Livingston. Mae Belle entered into eternal rest on Friday, June 16, 2023, at home in the presence of family. Mae Belle was educated in the Aiken County Public Schools, and graduated from A. L. Corbett High School, in Wagener, SC. She was employed for many years at Mount Vernon Mills, and the United States Postal Service. She loved baking cakes and working in her yard. Mae Belle Landy was the best doggone businesswoman. She managed a full household, the family business, and still managed to keep her sanity!

Mae Belle was baptized in Jesus’ name and filled with the Holy Ghost at the Progressive Church in Killian, SC in 1981. She loved to read the Bible and going to church. Mae Belle was joined in holy matrimony to Arthur Paul Landy, Sr. on July 24, 1958. This union was blessed with 13 beautiful children. Though she was a woman of few words, she often demonstrated tokens of wisdom. It was not what Sister Landy said but what she didn’t say. She enjoyed being around her family, so much so that it was her desire to be surrounded with family when she transitioned. God honored His faithful soldier’s request.

Sister Mae Belle Landy was preceded in death by her husband, Arthur P. Landy, Sr.; son, Arthur P. Landy, Jr.; sister, Geraldine Livingston; and brother, Wyman Quattlebaum, Jr.

Those who will forever cherish her fond and precious memory are: her eight daughters, Jacqueline D. (Wayne) Abney, of Lexington, SC, Janice R. (Michael) Bannister, of Columbia, SC, Paula L. (Bernard) Glenn of Lithonia, GA, Cassandra (Maurice) Landy-Anderson, of Irmo, SC, Sharon M. Landy, of Columbia, SC, Ruthie S. Landy, of Fort Stewart, GA, Lanitta M. Landy, of West Columbia, SC, and Joanne E. (Brandon) Rodgers, of Columbia, SC; four sons, Calvin Landy, of Columbia, SC, Harvey G. (Myrtice) Landy, of Salisbury, NC, Benjamin C. Landy, of Smyra, TN, and Nathan Landy, of Kennesaw, GA; four brothers, Gene (Sarah) Quattlebaum, Foris Quattlebaum, both of Aiken, SC, Brook (Julia) Quattlebaum, of Wagener, SC, and Stanley Livingston, of Washington DC; eight sisters, Lois Culler, of Columbia, SC, Carolyn (Robert) Gordon, of North, SC, Mabel (George) Hamm, of Columbia, SC, Gloria Woods, of Columbia, SC, Odell Quattlebaum, of Wagener, SC, Teresa (Thomas) Davis, of Durham, NC, Donna Livingston, of Clinton, Maryland, and Ella Austin, of Erwin, NC; one brother-in-law, James Landy; three sisters-in-law, Luerine Green, Mary Brown, and Veronica Quattlebaum. She is also survived by 31 grandchildren, 17 great-grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
