I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.

I took His hand when I heard His call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found the peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,

Good friends, good times,
a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart, and peace to thee-
God wanted me now; He has set me free.

Obituary

Sister Margaret Elenora Marine was born on July 17, 1935, in Darlington, County, SC. She was the daughter of the late Brother Willie and Mrs. Edith Dowdy Marine. She passed away on Wednesday, June 21, 2023, at Prisma Health Hospital, in Columbia, SC. She will be missed and lovingly remembered by her family, friends, and church family.

Margaret was educated in the public schools of Darlington County. She was a 1953 graduate of Butler High School, in Hartsville, SC. She continued her education in Columbia, SC and worked at Columbia Hospital as a Ward Clerk. She later worked at Richland Memorial Hospital as a Ward Secretary, until she retired after many years of service. Later, she did private care for several years as well.

She was a gardener, who loved working in the yard. She was a walker as well and loved outdoor exercise. She was a community volunteer and spent a lot of time working with the Senior Group at Martin Luther King Jr. Park in Columbia. She loved eating at restaurants with her nieces Linda Marine and Sonya McDuffie on occasions.

She was a member of The Church In The Lord Jesus Christ of the Apostles' Doctrine, Inc., and attended the branch church at 1144 Olympia Avenue. As a member of the Columbia Branch church, she, her son Anthony, and her sister, Mary [Sis. Mary Marine] enjoyed attending other branch churches, meetings, and conventions. Travelling to these church services was very dear to their hearts. Sister Margaret worked in the kitchen with the saints in Columbia and took on the responsibility of helping to keep the dining area clean. She was able to continue to do so faithfully until Covid 19 occurred and her health began to fail.

She was preceded to the grave by her parents, Willie and Edith Marine; three brothers, "Doodie Boy," Willie Jr. and James Marine; and two sisters Ellen Williams and Samuel L. Marine.

Sister Margaret Elenora Marine leaves behind to cherish her memory, one son, Anthony W. Bright, of Hopkins, SC; and a sister, Sister Mary Marine of the home, with whom she shared a lifetime. She also leaves three nephews, Michael E. Marine and Jay Marine, both of Columbia, SC, and Willie (Mary) Marine, of Greenwood, SC; four nieces, Elaine (Samuel) Bovain, of Orangeburg; Linda Marine, of Columbia, SC, Betty Dinkins and Mary Sellers, both of Orangeburg, SC.; a host of other relatives, and friends, including a large church family.
