God's Garden

God looked around his garden And found an empty place. He then looked down upon the earth, And saw your tired face.

He put His arms around you And lifted you to rest. God's garden must be beautiful, He always takes the best.

He knew that you were suffering, He knew that you were in pain. He knew that you would never Get well on earth again.

He saw the road was getting rough And the hills were hard to climb. So He closed your weary eyelids And whispered "Peace be thine."

It broke our hearts to lose you But you did not go alone... For part of us went with you The day God called you home.

Celebration of Life In Loving Memory

Mrs. Roxanne Jacobs-Rhode

Obituary of Mrs. Roxanne Jacobs-Rhode

Mrs. Roxanne Jacobs-Rhode was born on November 1, 1959, in Columbia, South Carolina. She was the only child of the late Maxine Davis and Robert Purcell. She departed this life on Saturday, June 17, 2023.

Roxanne was educated in Lexington and Richland Counties, South Carolina. After graduating high school, Roxanne enlisted in the United States Army in 1979, at Fort Jackson, South Carolina. She was also stationed in Oakland, California before returning to South Carolina.

Roxanne was raised in West Columbia with her cousins, Wilma, Russell, Willie "Bubba," and Beatrice, who were more like brothers and sisters than cousins. Roxanne was a great softball player, playing for multiple teams, winning many awards, and trophies. She loved to fish and relax by herself.

Mrs. Roxanne Jacobs-Rhode leaves to mourn her passing: her husband, Johnathan Rhode, of Saluda, South Carolina; daughter, Jaree Jacobs, of West Columbia, South Carolina; three grandchildren, Mahogany Jacobs, Patrick Newman, Jr., and Claytron Cokely; three uncles, Larry (Sherie) Davis, of Mesa, Arizona, Leroy Davis, of St. Matthews, and Prentis Purcell, of Columbia, South Carolina; goddaughter, April Johnson; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.
