

Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little - but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.*

*For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's Plan,
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss Me - But Let Me Go.*

Obituary

Ms. Lowethel Bloome was born on January 10, 1944, in Livingston, SC. She was the daughter of the late Lemuel Arthur Bloome, Sr. and the late Odessie Bell Knotts Bloome. Lowethel attended Dover High School, in North, SC. After graduating from high school in 1962, she relocated to Bronx, New York.

In 1980, Lowethel returned to South Carolina and furthered her education at Midlands Technical College. She earned an associate degree and certification in Respiratory Therapy. She was employed at Baptist Hospital, where she retired in 2004 as a Respiratory Therapist.

After retiring, Lowethel continued serving and helping others through missionary work in Nigeria, West Africa and the Bahamas. She also volunteered with Prisma Health. Lowethel received her bachelor certification in Theology, master certification of Biblical Studies, and a Doctor of Divinity Certification in Theology from Heartbeat of the City, Inc., Heart to Heart Spiritual Guidance Seminary, Columbia, South Carolina.

Lowethel served as a licensed minister and as an intercessory prayer leader, at the Church of the Harvest Christian Ministries, Columbia, SC under the leadership of Pastors Ethel and Anthony Smith.

Lowethel will fondly be remembered for her love of cooking, traveling, reading, football, bowling, and her infectious laughter.

She was predeceased by her parents: Lemuel Arthur Bloome, Sr. and Odessie Bell Knotts Bloome; a brother, Lemuel Arthur Bloome Jr. and daughter-in-law, Yolanda Glover Martin.

Ms. Lowethel Bloome leaves to cherish her memory: a son, Dorand Martin; grandson, Mykel Martin, both of Columbia, SC; sister-in-law; Gloria Bloome, of Neeses, SC; two aunts, Mary Knotts, of Jacksonville, FL; and Rosa Lee Bloome, of New York. Also cherishing her memory are: two nieces and one nephew, Valarie Pough, of Lanham, MD, Audrey Bloome, and Troy Bloome, both of Neeses, SC; six great-nieces and great-nephews, Ebony Pough Glover (Demonde Glover), Keith Pough, Brittany Pough, Andrez Bloome, Isis Miller, and Tionte Bloome; two great-great-nieces and five great-great-nephews; Brandon Perry, Paiten Perry, Desmond Glover, Deon Glover, Demani Glover, London Pough Validum, and Kai Pough; a host of beloved cousins, friends, and many acquaintances, all of whom will miss her dearly.
