

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little - but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's Plan,
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss Me - But Let Me Go.

Obituary of Mr. Clarence White, Jr.

Mr. Clarence White, Jr. was born on March 21, 1945, in Sumter, South Carolina. He was the son of the late Alice White. He departed this life on Tuesday, July 4, 2023.

Clarence White was educated in the public school system of Sumter County, South Carolina. He worked for Sumter County and retired on September 14, 2018. He and his wife later moved to Lugoff, SC to live with their daughter to enjoy the retirement life.

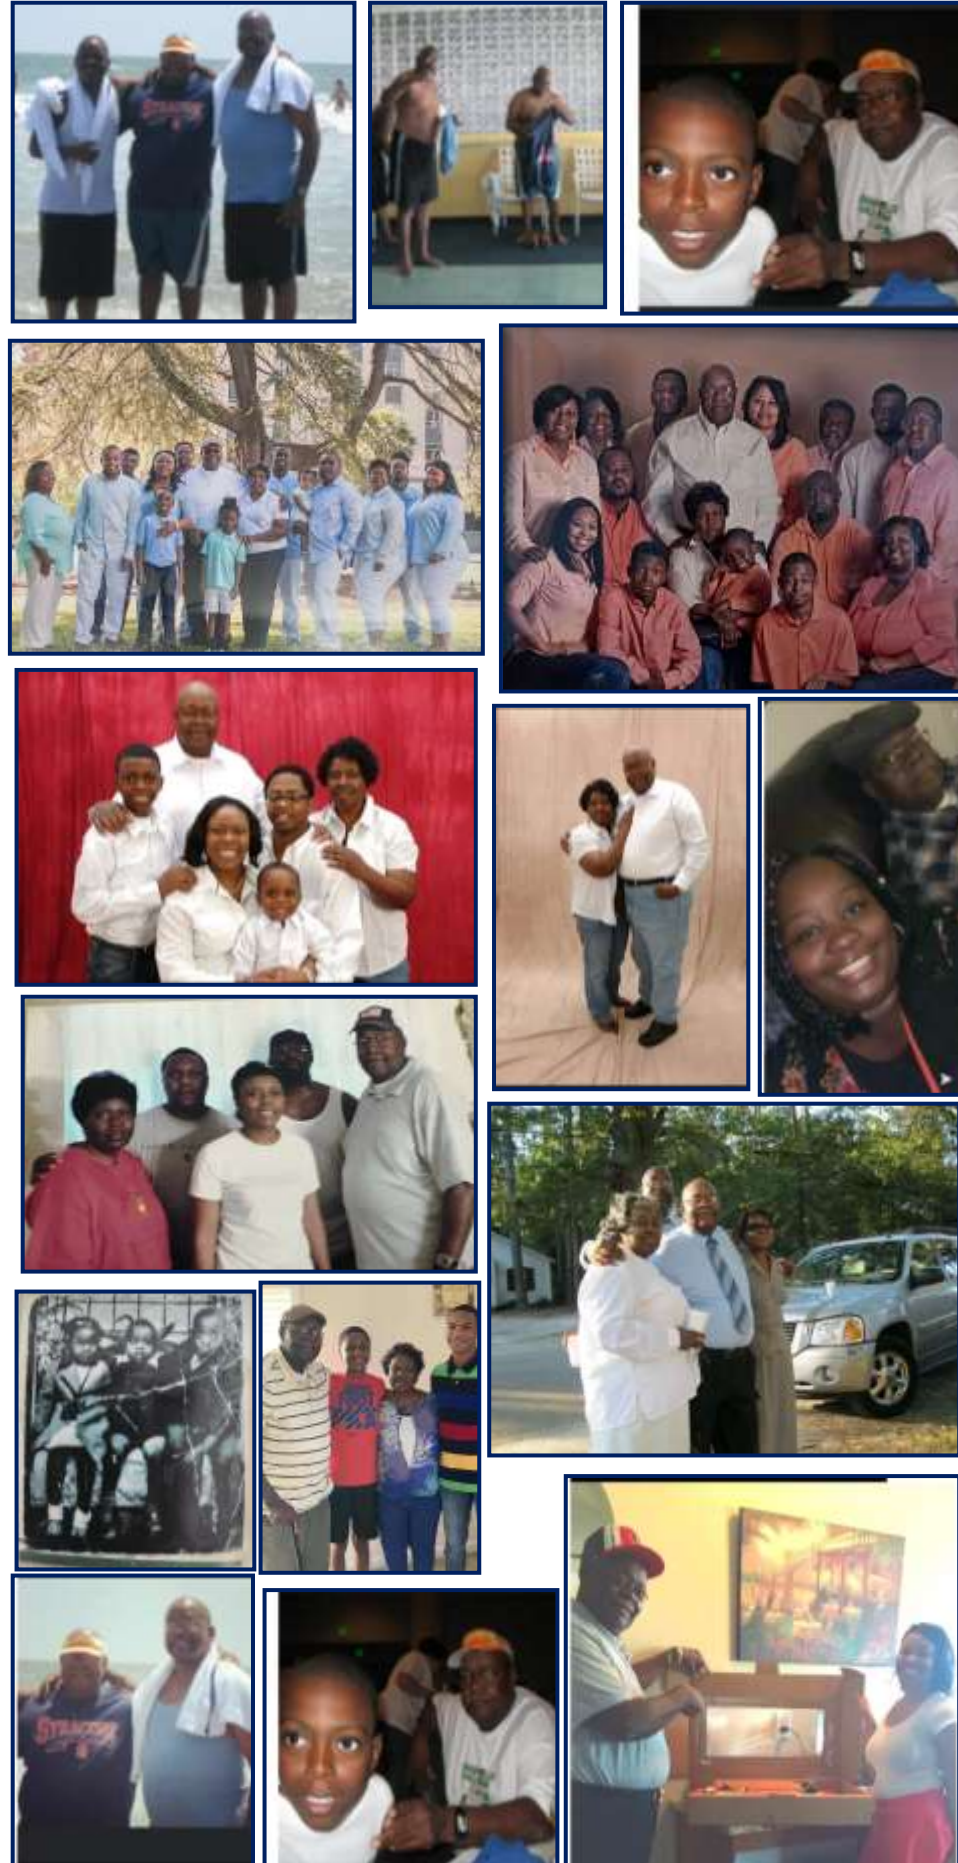

Mr. White was a kind and fun-loving person who knew everyone, he never met a stranger. He enjoyed looking at his old cowboy shows and wrestling. He especially loved to play cards and checkers.

Mr. White was an active member of Allen Chapel AME Church. He loved joking and laughing with his church members. He enjoyed his children and his grandchildren. Mr. White was married for 58 years to his loving wife, Elizabeth White.

Mr. Clarence White, Jr. leaves to mourn his passing: his loving wife, Elizabeth White; his sons, Ricky White (Shimanda White) of Atlanta, GA, Riyad White (Latonya White) of Charleston, SC, and James White of Sumter, SC; daughters, Rachel Baker (Edward Baker) of Lugoff, SC, Brenda Conyers (Sheldon Conyers) of Columbia, SC, and Jessica White of Sumter, SC; brothers, James Lee White of Dalzell, SC, Lee Ernest Goings of Baltimore, MD; Bessie Mickens of Syracuse, NY, Raymond Joe White of Philadelphia, PA; 11 grandchildren; 7 great-grandchildren; a hosts of nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, and many other loving relatives and caring friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.

He was preceded in death by his mother, Alice White; siblings, Jessie "Slim" White, William "Bubba" White, Rosa Mae Balls, Queen Esther White, daughter, Christine White, grandchild, Montese Watson.
