

Life Everlasting Is Promised

1. Life everlasting is promised.
Man's earthly home will endure.
'Meek ones will thrive,' said the psalmist.
This grand future is sure.
(CHORUS)
We can live forever.
It's worth all endeavor.
God's promise is faithful.
His Word will come true.
2. Paradise brought to perfection;
All of God's children set free.
Under Jehovah's direction,
Peace on earth we will see.
(CHORUS)
We can live forever.
It's worth all endeavor.
God's promise is faithful.
His Word will come true.
3. Soon in the grand resurrection,
Sorrow will all disappear.
Showering tender affection,
God will dry ev'ry tear.
(CHORUS)
We can live forever.
It's worth all endeavor.
God's promise is faithful.
His Word will come true.

He Will Call

Life, like a mist, appears for just a day,
Then disappears tomorrow.
All that we are can quickly fade away,
Replaced with tears and sorrow.
If a man should die, can he live again?
Hear the promise God has made:
(CHORUS)
He will call; The dead will answer.
They will live at his command.
For he will have a longing
For the work of his own hand.
So have faith, and do not wonder,
For our God can make us stand.
And we will live forever,
As the work of his own hand.
Friends of our God, though they may pass away,
Will never be forsaken.
All those asleep who in God's mem'ry stay,
From death he will awaken.
Then we'll come to see all that life can be:
Paradise eternally.
(CHORUS)
He will call; The dead will answer.
They will live at his command.
For he will have a longing
For the work of his own hand.
So have faith, and do not wonder,
For our God can make us stand.
And we will live forever,
As the work of his own hand.

Obituary of Mr. William Cornelius Adams

Mr. William Cornelius Adams was born on April 23, 1953, in the Ward 1 section of Columbia, South Carolina. He was the fourth of six children (two sisters and three brothers) born to the late David Preston Adams, Sr. and Catherine Harris Adams.

William was an avid scholar and he loved to occasionally greet family and friends in Spanish. William graduated from Booker T. Washington High School and Midlands Technical College. William's lifetime passion was cooking and riding his bike. He was a dedicated cyclist. William loved riding his bike throughout the Columbia area. He once rode his bike to Newberry, South Carolina. William had great admirations for the pure breed Boxer dogs, and he owned several Boxers during his life span.

However, he was known for his affectionate love for his family. William truly loved his wife Juanita; and she wrapped her devoted love and affection around him. William was also known as "Donnie" to the family, and he was loved and cherished tremendously by his beloved mother Catherine.

William's love for his family brought exceeding joy and laughter to his heart. William loved talking to his father, mother, siblings, aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins, neighbors, and friends. He loved to reminisce about how they grew up in such a warm and loving family environment.

He dedicated his life to Jehovah and became one of Jehovah's Witnesses in June of 1977. Love for Jehovah was very important to him and Juanita throughout their life together.

William passed away peacefully at home on Tuesday, August 22, 2023, with his loving, caring, and devoted wife Juanita by his side.

In addition to his parents, William was preceded in death by his brother, David "Peg" Preston Adams, Jr.

Mr. William Cornelius Adams leaves to mourn his passing: his wife of 42 years, Juanita Brown Adams; his brothers, Anthony Adams and Victor (Geneva) Adams, both of Columbia, South Carolina; his sisters, Lizzie D. Adams, of Columbia, South Carolina and Veronica Watkins, of Atlanta, Georgia; brother-in-law, Darrell Stephens; sisters-in-law, Janice Brown and Vhelma Rapley; a host of nieces, nephews, other loving family members, and friends.
