Our Sweet Lady

September 7, 1925. The Lord blessed us with a Queen

Queen Daisy Mae, the most beautiful blessing you've ever seen.

The hearts that you've touched over the years,

will never be the same as we fight to control our tears.

You were our rock and you were our safe place,

Just to hear your laughter, just to see that beautiful smile on your face.

Your legacy lives within each and every one of us.

The moments we shared with you were oh so precious.

As you embark on your new journey into heaven

Will we hold it down? There's no question.

Our sweet lady, you lived your life to the fullest,
for this is true.

Forever, you will always be in our hearts

From all of us,

FOREVER, WE LOVE YOU!

Obituary

Mrs. Daisy Mae Green Belton was born on September 7, 1925, in Sanford, North Carolina. She was the second daughter of the late Tom and Patience Green. She was departed this life on Thursday, August 24, 2023.

Mrs. Belton was educated in the public schools of Richland County, Blythewood, South Carolina.

Mrs. Belton was baptized at an early age, and joined the Bethel Baptist Church in Blythewood, South Carolina. She enjoyed attending Bethel where she served on the Jubilee Choir for 80 years. She was the first female leader of the choir. She also served on many other auxiliaries at Bethel, until her health declined.

Mrs. Belton was preceded in death by her parents, Tom and Patience Green; son, Robert Belton; husband, Singleton Belton, Jr.; sisters, Edna, Bolar and Frances Alston; brothers, Thomas Green, Odell Green, and Clarence Green.

Mrs. Daisy Mae Green Belton leaves to mourn her passing: daughters, Reverend Allie Gunter, Mary Johnson, Dorothy Clinton, Willie Mae Richmond, Lavern Belton (Henry), all of Columbia, South Carolina, and Patsy Hudson (Nathaniel), of Blythewood, South Carolina; sons, Eddie Belton (Stephanie), of Columbia, South Carolina, Jeffery Belton, of Blythewood, South Carolina, and Larry Belton (Katrina), of Irvington, New Jersey; brother, David Green; 20 grandchildren; a host of great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, many other loving relatives, and loving friends, all whom will miss her dearly.
