Don't Cry For Me

Don't cry for me. I will be okay, Heaven is my home now, and this is where I'll stay.

Don't cry for me, I'm where I belong. I want you to be happy and try to stay strong.

Don't cry for me, it was just my time, but I will see you someday on the other side.

Don't cry for me, I am not alone. Pearlina met me here to welcome me home.

Don't cry for me, for I have no fear, all my pain is gone and Jesus took my tears.

Don't cry for me, this is not the end my children. I'll be waiting here for you when we meet again

Acknowledgement

The thanks that the Capers' Family extend to each one of you is so much greater than words. We extend heartfelt appreciation and gratitude for every prayer and act of kindness rendered in our time of bereavement. Thank you!

Obituary

Mr. Willie Nehemiah "Brut" Capers was born April 21, 1941 in Bowman, SC, to the late Freddie Capers, Sr. and Jessie Belle McDaniel Capers. He departed this earth on Friday, July 28, 2023.

Willie was educated in the public school system in Bowman, SC, and attended South Carolina State University. He later moved to New York City to be reunited with his high school sweetheart, Pearlie Mae Glover Capers, also a native of Bowman, SC.

While in New York City, he worked as a construction worker and taxi cab driver to support his family, before he was hired at the United States Postal Service. He and his family moved to Columbia, SC, where he continued to work for the Postal Service and started an upholstery business on the side. After 26 years of service, he retired in 1992. After retiring he opened a barber shop for Jarriel, as well as a tax business with his wife. He also took up several hobbies, which included: restoring a 1956 Ford F-150, bowling, and working on model trains, which ended in an elaborate train set that he would share with any and all who stopped by the house for a visit.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife, Pearlie Capers; granddaughter, Tiffani Capers; step-mom, Hazel Capers; and brothers, Franklin, Freddie, Jr, and Marion.

Mr. Willie Nehemiah "Brut" Capers leaves to treasure his memory: two sons, Roderick (Henrietta) Capers, of Kathleen, GA and Jarriel (Terri) Capers, of Columbia, SC; one daughter, Undrea (Richard) Jenkins, of Kernersville, NC; four sisters, Betty (Phillip) Calhoun, of Hodges, SC, Francis Keitt, Carolyn (Antonia) Shuler, and Shirley Capers, all of Orangeburg, SC; two brothers, Samuel Capers, of Orangeburg, SC and Anthony (Angelisa) Capers, of Lexington, SC; two grandsons, Sheldon Capers, of Columbia, SC and Maxwell Jenkins, of Kernersville, NC; five granddaughters, Shavonda West, of Warner Robins, GA, Andrea Tillman, Jaila Capers, both of Columbia, SC, Marcella Jenkins, Myrtle Jenkins, both of Kernersville, NC; two great-grandsons; six great-granddaughters; two sisters-in-law, Mariam (Charles) Glover, of Columbia, SC and Ruth (Maynard) Scott, of New York; a host of nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, and caring friends, all of whom who will miss him dearly.
