

Pallbearers

Family and Friends

Floral Bearers

Family and Friends

As The White Dove Flies

*As the sun sets a dove is born
Breaking free with hope and glee
To explore the wonders never seen before
The sweet chirp of new birth
Happiness far from pain
And with beauty taken in vain
Days of ending and life just merely beginning
With night fading into black
And our fears creeping upon our backs
The valley of darkness the dove flies through
We believe it might be too hard for me and you
But just as the dove with wings spread
You find growth and strength
For our perils are broken at new light
For we see now the sun shines bright
Over the hills will peak through the sun
And the dove will find peace
For life has just begun*

LaKia Hutcherson

Services Entrusted to:

Taylor Street Chapel 1831 Taylor Street Columbia, SC 29201 (803)771-7799 I. S. Leevy Johnson -Owner & Director-	Leevy's FUNERAL HOME Chris Leevy Johnson -President & Managing Director-	Lower Richland Chapel 9120 Garners Ferry Road Hopkins, SC 29061 (803) 776-6922 Leverette A. Williams, II -General Manager-
---	--	--

*Homegoing Service
In Loving Memory
of*

MS. YOLANDA MONIQUE JACKSON-COLEMAN

TUESDAY, AUGUST 15, 2023
1:00 P.M.

RIDGEWOOD MISSIONARY BAPTIST CHURCH
5326 RIDGEWAY STREET
COLUMBIA, SOUTH CAROLINA

REVEREND FRED W. COIT
-PASTOR-

Obituary

Ms. Yolanda “Tikki” Jackson-Coleman was born on June 19, 1973, in Columbia, South Carolina. She was the youngest daughter of James E. Jackson, Sr. and Willene Jackson. She departed this life on Monday, August 7, 2023, surrounded by her family.

Ms. Jackson-Coleman was educated in the public schools of Richland County and graduated from Columbia High School in 1991. She enlisted in the United States Army at Fort Jackson, South Carolina, and served in Africa during Operation Freedom. After her tour of service ended, she made her home in Fayetteville, North Carolina, before returning home to Columbia, South Carolina. She was a graduate of both Midlands Technical College and Webster University. At the time of her passing, she was employed by Blue Cross Blue Shield, as an Account Specialist.

Ms. Jackson-Coleman was baptized at an early age at New Williams Street Baptist Church, in Columbia, South Carolina. She enjoyed traveling, art, music, journaling, and reading. Diamond art paintings were her passion. She would spend hours at a time working on paintings that will last a lifetime.

Ms. Jackson-Coleman was a Past Worthy Matron of Sisters of Change #798 Order of the Eastern Stars, and a member of Mary E. Johnson Amaranth Court #12 Modern Free South Carolina. She was actively involved throughout the community, lending a helping hand wherever she could.

She was preceded in death by her maternal grandparents, Mary Ann Osborne and Charles Reese; and paternal grandparents, Dessie Ree and Gabriel Jackson.

Ms. Jackson was known affectionately by many nicknames. "Tikki," was given to her by her grandmother, and "Mrs. Beasley," was given to her by her sister. She was full of life, adventure, and there was never a vacation she wouldn't take. Every year for her birthday she would take a solo vacation. "YOLO", or You Only Live Once, was her favorite saying. Her love for travel allowed her to see the world in 50 short years.

Ms. Yolanda Jackson- Coleman leaves to mourn her passing: her father, James E. Jackson, Sr.; her mother, Willene Jackson, both of Columbia South Carolina; a son, Kayman Coleman; a daughter Tatiyana Jackson, both of Columbia South Carolina; brothers, Kevin (Abi) Stokes, of Washington D.C., Kenny Counts, of Columbia South Carolina, and James E. Jackson, Jr., of Columbia South Carolina; sisters, Charlene Peay and Tara Bouknight, both of Columbia, South Carolina; "sister-cousins" Jennaine, Stephanie, and Toya; Sisters of Change #798 Order of The Eastern Star; one god-grandbaby, Reina-Jade Elizabeth McCray; 15 adopted children; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, great-nieces, many other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.

Order of Service

Prelude.....Mr. Austin Jefferson
“You Are My Strength and How Great Is Our God”

Processional

Viewing.....Funeral Directors

Presentation of Military Honors.....United States Army Honor Guard

Opening Selection.....Mr. Austin Jefferson
“Hold To God’s Unchanging Hand”

Old Testament.....Isaiah 25:7-9.....Minister Calvin Dash

New Testament.....John 14:1-4.....Pastor Chester Gray

Prayer.....Deacon Leroy Hills
Selection.....Ms. Stephanie Jackson
“Going Up Yonder”

Poem.....Ms. Cherrelle Foxworth

RemarksUncle Joe
Ms. Stephanie Jackson
Mrs. Tanaka Phillips-Crumpton
OES Presentation

Selection.....Mr. Austin Jefferson
“Low Country Medley”

Words of Comfort.....Pastor Alice Williams-Ellison

Committal and Benediction

Recessional.....“Lean On Me”

Postlude

Acknowledgement

We, the family of Ms. Yolanda Jackson-Coleman, would like to give a special thank you to MUSC Health Charleston and Columbia Campus, Dorn VA Medical Center, The Fisher House, South Carolina Oncology Associates, Blue Cross Blue Shield, Leevy's Funeral Home, and to each of you for your prayers and support during the passing of our loved one. May God bless each of you.