A Limb Has Fallen

*A limb has fallen from the family tree.
I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me."
Remember the best times, the laughter, the song.
The good life I lived while I was strong.
Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.
Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.
Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.
Continue traditions, no matter how small.
Go on with your life, don't worry about falls
I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.
Until the day comes, we're together again.*

Obituary

Mr. Kenneth George Deveaux was born October 27, 1987, in Brooklyn, New York. He was the only child born to Robert and Katherine Deveaux.

Kenneth completed his education at C. R. Johnson Christian Academy and High School for Legal Studies. He excelled in math and has excellent computer skills. After graduating high school, he was determined to be of service to his country, so he joined the United States Armed Forces. In addition, he received numerous college credits from Kaplan University.

Kenneth started working at an early age and was proud to earn money to buy his Prada shoes. He was also a classy dresser and took pride in his appearance. Kenneth later found the niche in his career by becoming an experienced tractor trailer driver. Driving was something that Kenneth loved to do in addition to swimming and traveling.

Kenneth's smile captured the hearts of everyone around him. He had the kind of personality that was so humble and meek. Whenever you were in his presence you could not help but to be taken in by his infectious grin and laughter. He was a prankster, sometimes telling jokes to those near and dear to him just to get a smile. Everyone near and dear could agree.

Mr. Kenneth George Deveaux leaves to cherish his memory: two daughters, Kendra, from New York and Kelli, from Florida; son, Kenneth, Jr., of South Carolina; stepdaughter, Joyce (Maya); stepson, Steven; his fiancé, Symone; parents, Robert and Katherine Deveaux; we cannot forget his pet sister, Sophia; pet sons, Oreo and King; a host of other loving family members and dear friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.
