Obituary

Mrs. Rosa Lee Hinton Young was born on December 29, 1937, in Columbia, South Carolina. She was the daughter of the late James and Mary Hinton. Rosa departed this life on Saturday, August 26, 2023.

Rosa was educated in the public school systems of Richland County, South Carolina. She met and married Clarence Young. They were the proud parents of seven children. Rosa doted on her children and loved ones. She was skilled in many areas and held long-term employment with the Marwin Company and The State Newspaper. Rosa loved spending time with her family and was an avid enthusiast of cooking.

In addition to her parents, Rosa was preceded in death by two sisters, Lillie Mae Williams and Martha Oates; brother, James Hinton, Jr; two sons, Thaddeus Young and Charles Young.

A loving and devoted mother, grandmother, aunt, cousin, and friend Mrs. Rosa Lee Hinton Young leaves to cherish her memory: her children, Clarence Young, Jr., Jerry Young, Jacqueline Brantley, Terri Baskerville (Anthony), and Perry Young (Kenya); 26 grandchildren; 28 great-grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and many dear friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.

To my family and friends: In my moments with weariness, pain, and sorrow, the Lord came to me. He spoke and said, "it's ok Rosa Lee, you can let go and rest now." I did just that and gave the Lord my spirit. To all of you, I leave not sadness, but beautiful memories of my life on earth. No tears because all my sufferings are over, and my spirit is at ease. When you walk to view my body, do not weep. It's a new day and God has taken me to His house. In other words, I've just moved away. To my family and friends, I say goodbye. I am going to that very special place where all our loved ones have open arms to welcome me today.
