Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little - but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.*

*For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's Plan,
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss Me - But Let Me Go.*

Obituary

Mr. James Franklin Anderson was born on June 10, 1941, in Columbia, South Carolina to Hughes and Ruth Anderson. He graduated from C.A. Johnson High School in 1959. After graduating he enlisted in the United States Air Force and achieved the rank of Master Sergeant. He received an honorable discharge from the Air Force. He attended and received a bachelor's degree in business administration in 1975 from the University of South Carolina. At an early age, he became a member of Zion Canaan Baptist Church and later became a Trustee. He later joined Round Top Baptist Church, serving as a Trustee and in the Media Ministry.

James was a proud father of his beloved children, Rhonda and Hoyt. He adored his three grandchildren, Sha'Toni, Jade, and Hoyt, and great-grands, Jayden and Omari. All of whom he shared with Mary Anderson.

James "Jim" was very ambitious, and a hard worker. He was employed by IBM for several years, and retired from South Carolina Electric and Gas, after 30 years of service. He was also a realtor for 20 years.

Prior to his retirement, he met and married Minnie Brown, and they shared 24 wonderful years together. He had two "bonus children," Muriel (Richard) Powell, of Atlanta, Georgia and Travis Crosby, of Blythewood, South Carolina and four "bonus" grandchildren, Travis, Richie, Olivia and Dwayne. Minnie was not only his wife, but caregiver, and took excellent care of him. They enjoyed traveling and many adventures together.

James "Jim" was a loving husband, father, grandfather, and great-grandfather. He loved his family dearly. Not only did he love his family, he loved sports; but particularly football and golf. James was true to his alma mater, The University of South Carolina.

Jim had a passion for language and loved doing crossword puzzles, earning the title of "Crossword Puzzle King," from his friends at the VA. One of his other favorite past times was his lawnmower while cutting the grass. Last, but not least, he bought new meaning to "a dog is a man's best friend." He loved his dog Zeus, and Zeus loved him!

James fought the good fight of faith, and he entered eternal rest with his wife Minnie by his bedside at Lexington Memorial Hospital on Saturday, September 23, 2023.

James was predeceased by his mother and father, Ruth and Hughes Anderson; his stepmother, Johnnie Mae Anderson; his adopted mother, Irene Norman; his brother, William Anderson; and sisters, Myrtle Anderson, Jacqueline Harrison, Carolyn Anderson, and Minnie Foster.

James leaves to cherish his memory: his devoted and loving wife, Minnie Anderson, of Blythewood, South Carolina; his two children, Rhonda Anderson, of Columbia, South Carolina and Hoyt (Yolanda) Anderson of Bowie, Maryland; his sisters, Victoria Ingram, of Bradenton, Florida and Ellen Jean Jacobs of, Columbia, South Carolina; sister-in-law, Vicki Anderson, of Sarasota, Florida; two adopted sisters, Dr. Clarice Norman, of Columbia, South Carolina and Juachita Jackson of Temple Hills, Maryland; his brothers, Walter Anderson (Cheryl), of Blythewood, South Carolina, Eric Stanley Anderson, Earl Anderson Sr., Ronald Anderson (Catherine), all of Columbia, South Carolina, Alvin Dean Anderson (Kerri), of Stamford, Connecticut, and Donald Anderson (Gail), of Atlanta, Georgia; a host of grandchildren, great-children, nieces, nephews, and other family members and friends.
