

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.*

*I took His hand when I heard His call
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found the peace at the close of the day.*

*If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.*

*Lift up your heart, and peace to thee-
God wanted me now; He has set me free.*

Obituary

Ms. Annie Louise Buggs was born May 15, 1942, in Ridgeway, South Carolina. She was the oldest child of Annie Pearl Ruff and Walter James Buggs. She departed this life on Tuesday, September 5, 2023.

Ms. Buggs was educated in the public schools of Fairfield County and Richland County, South Carolina. She graduated from C. A. Johnson High School, Class of 1960 and from Columbia Commercial College in 1967. She briefly attended the University of South Carolina. After graduation, she went on to have a successful career in the banking industry. First being employed at First National Bank and continuing employment when First National Bank merged with South Carolina National Bank. After leaving the banking industry, she worked for Richland School District One in the payroll department.

Ms. Buggs devoted her life to God's mission, volunteering at several nursing homes/schools, and donating to charities. She was a member of Second Calvary Baptist Church.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Walter and Annie Buggs; brother, Walter J. Buggs; and brother-in-law, John H. Douglas.

Ms. Annie Louise Buggs leaves to cherish her memory: her sister, Carrie B. Douglas; nephews, Vincent Douglas and Jonathan Douglas; nieces, Jennifer Patterson and Kimberly Etheridge; great-nephews, Godfrey Patterson, Coley Etheridge, Joshua Douglas, Kyngstn Turner, and Julian Douglas; great-nieces, India Etheridge, Jordan Patterson, Elyse Etheridge, and Peyton Etheridge; many other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.
