

A Limb Has Fallen

A limb has fallen from the family tree.
I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me."

Remember the best times, the laughter, the song.
The good life I lived while I was strong.
Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.
Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.
Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.
Continue traditions, no matter how small.
Go on with your life, don't worry about falls
I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.
Until the day comes, we're together again.

Services Entrusted To:

Taylor Street Chapel

1831 Taylor Street
Columbia, SC 29201
(803)771-7799

I. S. Leevy Johnson
-Owner & Director-

Leevy's

FUNERAL HOME

Chris Leevy Johnson
-President & Managing Director-

Lower Richland Chapel

9120 Garners Ferry Road
Hopkins, SC 29061
(803) 776-6922

Leverette A. Williams, II
-General Manager-

A Celebration of Life for Ms. Diane Renee Eason

Saturday, September 9, 2023

11:00 a.m.

Leevy's Funeral Home Chapel

*1831 Taylor Street
Columbia, South Carolina*

Obituary

Diane Renee Eason, a beloved sister, niece, aunt, and cherished member of the Bushwick community in Brooklyn, New York, passed away on Wednesday, August 30, 2023, at the age of 63.

Diane was born on February 11, 1960, to her parents, Ada Eason and Donald Lee Eason. She grew up in the vibrant neighborhood of Bushwick, where she formed lifelong connections and relationships that would shape her remarkable journey. Diane's early years were spent with her brother Earl Eason, who preceded her in death and nurturing a strong bond with her cousins Elton O'Garro, James O'Garro, Glenn O'Garro, and Keisha Joseph.

Family meant the world to Diane, and she always put their needs before her own. She had an unwavering love for her siblings Denise M. (Joseph) Lewis, Laverne Eason, Donna (James) Sanford, and Samuel (Karen) Eason, all of whom she shared a deep and unbreakable connection with. Despite geographical distances, their bond remained strong and unyielding, a testament to Diane's commitment to nurturing relationships.

Diane's legacy of love extended to her goddaughter Adenike Toviho; six nieces and nephews, Gregory K. (Veronica) Kohlheim, Joseph Lewis III, Dwayne (Devita) Eason, Crystal G. Lewis-Moses, Christine H. Lewis, and DeNesha A. Sanford. She found immense joy in watching them grow, and she shared in their triumphs and challenges. Diane's pride in her eleven grand-nieces and nephews and her great-great-nephew was immeasurable, and her guidance and love will continue to shape their lives.

Her infectious laugh and welcoming spirit made her a treasured member of the Bushwick Family. Diane's genuine care for her neighbors and friends created a sense of unity and belonging that enriched the community she held dear. She often spent time interacting with her neighbors, sharing stories, and building connections that transcended generations.

Diane's memory will forever remain in the hearts of those who knew her. Her selflessness, compassion, and dedication to family serve as an inspiration to all who were fortunate enough to cross her path. As we mourn her passing, let us also celebrate the vibrant life she lived and the love she shared. Diane will forever be remembered for her boundless love, her devotion to family, and her enduring impact on the lives of those who were lucky enough to know her.

Order of Service

Welcome.....Mr. Joseph Lewis III, Nephew

Reading of Obituary.....Mr. Dwayne T. Eason, Nephew

Scriptures Reading:

1 Thessalonians 4:13-18.....Mrs. Crystal G. Lewis-Moses, Niece

Poem.....Ms. Jasmine D. Lewis and Ms. Jayla I Lewis, Great-nieces

A Limb Has Fallen

Closing Remark.....Mr. JaHart X. Lewis

Mr. Jaelen J. Kohleim, and Mr. Kevin I. Moses, Great-nephews

Acknowledgement

We, the family of Ms. Diane Renee Eason, would like to thank each of you for all acts of kindness rendered to us, during the passing of our loved one. We pray a special blessing upon each of you.