

Obituary

Mrs. Wanda Denise Perry Harris was born September 25, 1960, in Richland County, South Carolina. She was the daughter of the late Eloise Bell Perry and Raymond Wilson. Wanda entered peaceful rest on Sunday, September 3, 2023, at Prisma Health Richland Hospital.

Wanda was a member of New Laurel Street Baptist Church, where she actively served on the Outreach Ministry. She was employed with White Oak Manor for 32 years. Wanda enjoyed playing BINGO and spending time with her family and friends. She never met a stranger. Wanda was a loving mother, sister, aunt, cousin, and the list goes on.

An Angel In Heaven

There's a new angel in heaven, Wanda Harris.

As she sits in heaven with our Heavenly Father,

She looks down at us and says, "Don't cry for me now that I'm gone, rejoice, and be happy that I'm with my father."

Wanda was always the life of the party and would always lighten the mood with one of her famous antics like: "shut up boy" or "don't make me mad boy!"

Your laughter and smile have warmed the hearts of many and will surely be missed. As I enter my heavenly home, the beauty that I am beholding is more than I could have ever imagined. I can see Jesus. The nail print in his hands and feet. He held my hand to his side, where he was pierced for me. My healing and all my sins forgiven. I am at peace now because I am forever healed and forever forgiven. I am home now. I have been met by a host of family and friends from times past. I am now waiting for you to see Jesus and behold His marvelous sight. Family, I made it. I'm finally home.
