

Obituary

Ms. Alma Jacobs was born on March 10, 1950, to the late Cleveland Jacobs, Sr. and Precious Jacobs, in Columbia South Carolina. Alma was the third of five children. The family relocated to New York City in 1956. Alma attended New York City schools as a child and adolescent. As a young adult, Alma loved to cook. She also worked as a waitress and cook in Manhattan.

Although, Alma had no children, she was very family oriented and loved spending time with all her family. She had special bonds with all of whom she encountered and had a special love for the younger children and babies in the family. She would always give gifts of sentimental value to show her love. Alma was very spiritual and often found strength in her faith. She often prayed with and for her family and was happy to say, "I just prayed for you." She knew the Lord and attended church and spiritual crusades when she was well. Alma, who affectionately called herself, "Candy" was also known for always "keeping it real." She gave advice and encouragement to all those around her.

On September 18, 2023, Alma was called home after a lengthy battle with her health. She was preceded in death by her parents, Cleveland Jacobs Sr. and Precous Jacobs; her sisters, Jean and Anita; and her longtime companion, Edward (Eazy).

Alma will be missed. She leaves to cherish her many great memories by: her sister, Annie Jacobs Goodwin; brother, Cleveland Jacobs, Jr., of New York; aunts, Mazola Ali, of New York and Ernestine Jacobs, of Maryland. She also leaves behind her nieces and nephews; Crystal (Jay-L), Angela (Ralph), Saieda, Robert, Kevin, LaJeanna, William, Leroy, Jr., Latina, and Chace all of New York; a host of great-nieces and nephews, cousins, family, and friends.

Alma will be missed by all those that knew and loved her, but we all know that God loved her best. "It's never goodbye," as Alma would affectionately say, "It's later." No more suffering "Al"...until we meet again. We love you, "LATER!"
