Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little - but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's Plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss Me - But Let Me Go.*

Obituary

Mr. Willie Jones, Jr. was born June 10, 1953, in Hopkins, South Carolina. He was the beloved son of the late Willie Jones, Sr. and Catherine H. Jones. On Sunday, September 3, 2023, at approximately 5:48 p.m., Jesus called, and he answered. He departed this earthly life following a very long illness at Prisma Baptist Hospital, surrounded by his loving family.

Willie was educated in the public schools of Richland County, South Carolina, where he attended Hopkins Elementary and Hopkins High Schools.

Prior to his health declining, Willie held several jobs with prominent companies. He spent many years at Prisma Baptist Hospital as a custodian and Columbia Newspaper, where he met his present wife. He spent many years perfecting his craft and was known as a “Jack of all trades,” which included: car detailing, carpentry, construction work, and as an automotive technician.

Willie was a member of several motorcycle clubs including: “Love Doctor, Black Cobras” of Winnsboro, SC and Max Bike Riders, of Lynchburg, SC, just to name a few.

In addition to his parents, Willie was preceded in death by his maternal and paternal grandparents.

Mr. Willie Jones, Jr. leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Barbara A. Jones; sons, Christopher Bailey, Willie Jones IV, Clarence Perry, and Raymond Jones; daughters, Tamara (Richard) Heatley and Kimberly Jones; stepchildren, Brenda Stratten, Marie (Hernard Council) Wolfe, Elizabeth (Neil Raines) McLeod, and Cleva Williams; brothers, Frank, Eddie, and Samuel Jones; sisters, Margaret (Clynton) Barzey, Kathy Taylor, and Mary (Robert Patterson) Higgins; a special sister, Gail Craft; half-sisters, Isabelle Wolfe, Doris Mack, and, Reverend Rosetta Mack; half-brother, Calvin Mack; a host of grandchildren, great-children, aunts, uncles, nephews, cousins, great-nephews, great-nieces, brothers-in-law, sisters-in-law, neighbors, and friends, all who will miss him dearly.
