I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
 I'm following the path God has laid you see.
 I took His hand when I heard His call
 I turned my back and left it all.
 I could not stay another day
 To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
 Tasks left undone must stay that way
 I found the peace at the close of the day.
 If my parting has left a void
 Then fill it with remembered joys
 A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
 Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
 Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
 I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
 My life's been full, I savored much,
 Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
 Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
 Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
 Lift up your heart, and peace to thee-
 God wanted me now; He has set me free.

Obituary

Mrs. Fitzgerald Mack Wages was born on July 1, 1940, in West Columbia, SC. She was the daughter of Mr. Henry Mack and Mrs. Laura Mack. After a long illness, she departed this life on Monday, September 18, 2023.

Fitzgerald attended Lexington County public schools, where she graduated from Lakeview High School, Class of 1958. She continued her studies at Benedict College. After concluding her studies, she went on to marry John Wesley Wages, to this union four children were born, Charles Walter Wages, of Columbia, SC, John Fitzgerald Wages (Frances), of Killeen, TX, Kimberly Toliver, of Charlotte, NC, and Duane Wages, of Columbia, SC.

At an early age Fitzgerald became involved in her church and her community. Fitzgerald would be best remembered for the love that she had for her family. She enjoyed many things in life, but one of her favorite things to do was cook for those she loved.

Fitzgerald was preceded in death by her husband, parents; brothers, Walter "Sonny" Mack, Henry Mack, Jr., Thomas Ray Mack, Larry Mack; sister, Beverly Patterson; and granddaughter, Michelle Douglas.

In addition to her four children, Mrs. Fitzgerald Mack Wages is survived by: her siblings, Clara Glisson, of Glendale, Maryland, Donald Mack (Karen), of Los Angeles, California, Carolyn Dickens, of Las Vegas, Nevada, and Peggy Jenkins (Larry), of West Columbia, South Carolina; three aunts, Andrena Taylor, of South Carolina, Hattie Kinley, and Mammie Muller, of West Columbia, South Carolina; seventeen grandchildren; ten great-grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews, many other relatives, and friends.

She will always be loved and carried within our hearts.
