

Pallbearers

Family and Friends
&
Little Zion Baptist Church Men's Ministry

Psalm 23

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He makes me lie down in green pastures.
He leads me beside still waters.
He restores my soul.
He leads me in paths of righteousness
for his name's sake.

Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil,
for you are with me;
your rod and your staff,
they comfort me.

You prepare a table before me
in the presence of my enemies;
you anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life,
and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD AMEN.

Floral Bearers

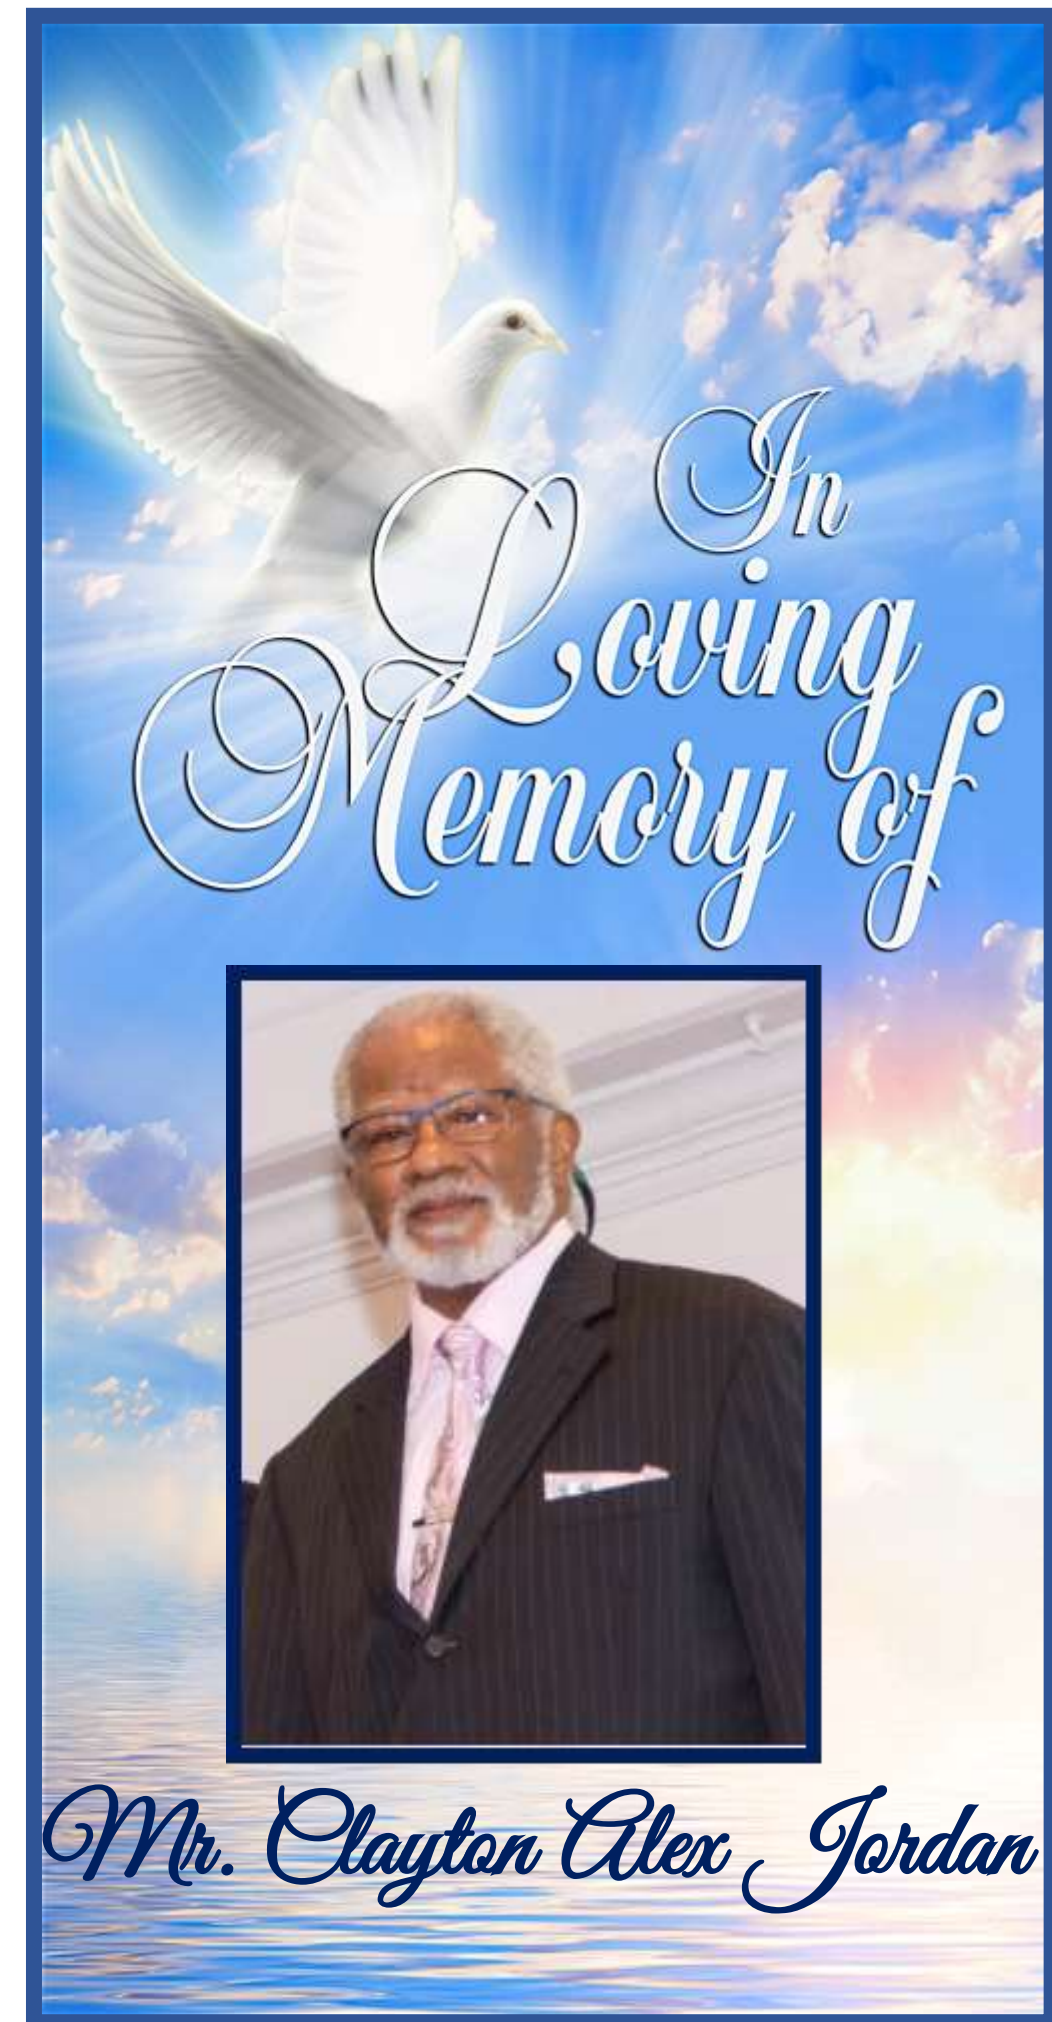

Little Zion Baptist Church Women's Ministry

Acknowledgement

We, the family of Mr. Clayton Alex Jordan, would like to thank each of you for your prayers and support shown to us during the passing of our loved one. It is our prayer that the Lord blesses each of you in a very special way. A special thank you to Home Instead Home Care Facility, Amedysis Home Health Care, the V.A. Hospital, NHC Nursing Home-Hospice, and other hospitals.

Services Entrusted To:

Taylor Street Chapel 1831 Taylor Street Columbia, SC 29201 (803)771-7799 I. S. Leevy Johnson -Owner & Director-	Leevy's FUNERAL HOME Chris Leevy Johnson -President & Managing Director-	Lower Richland Chapel 9120 Garners Ferry Road Hopkins, SC 29061 (803) 776-6922 Leverette A. Williams, II -General Manager-
---	--	--

“The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want...”

THE LIFE OF BROTHER CLAYTON ALEX JORDAN

Clayton, a husband, father, brother, friend and a man of God, departed from his family on Tuesday, October 11, 2023. Clayton was born to the late Naomi Porter and Clayton Alex Jordan in Abbeville, Alabama. He grew up and lived in Newark, New Jersey until his relocation to Columbia, South Carolina twenty years ago. He met and married his loving wife, Rosemarie Canty Jordan in Brooklyn, New York and they have been together over 40 years.

Clayton was a sports enthusiast who enjoyed all kinds of sports and it was his hobby to binge watch games during their respective seasons. He played on community baseball teams for years. He was an avid bowler and played in several bowling leagues and participated in various tournaments, traveling all over the country with his wife, Rosemarie. His bragging rights were his scoring of perfect 300's, and winning trophies.

Clayton was a professional truck driver and won trophies in several truck driving rodeos. Driving a car was like a toy to him, however, his passengers were not so incline to agree.

He served as a Staff Sergeant in the U. S. Army from 1954 – 1957 Post Korean War and was stationed in Korea from 1955 – 1956. Clayton had a desire to become a paratrooper, but a minor heart condition would not allow him to fulfill his dream.

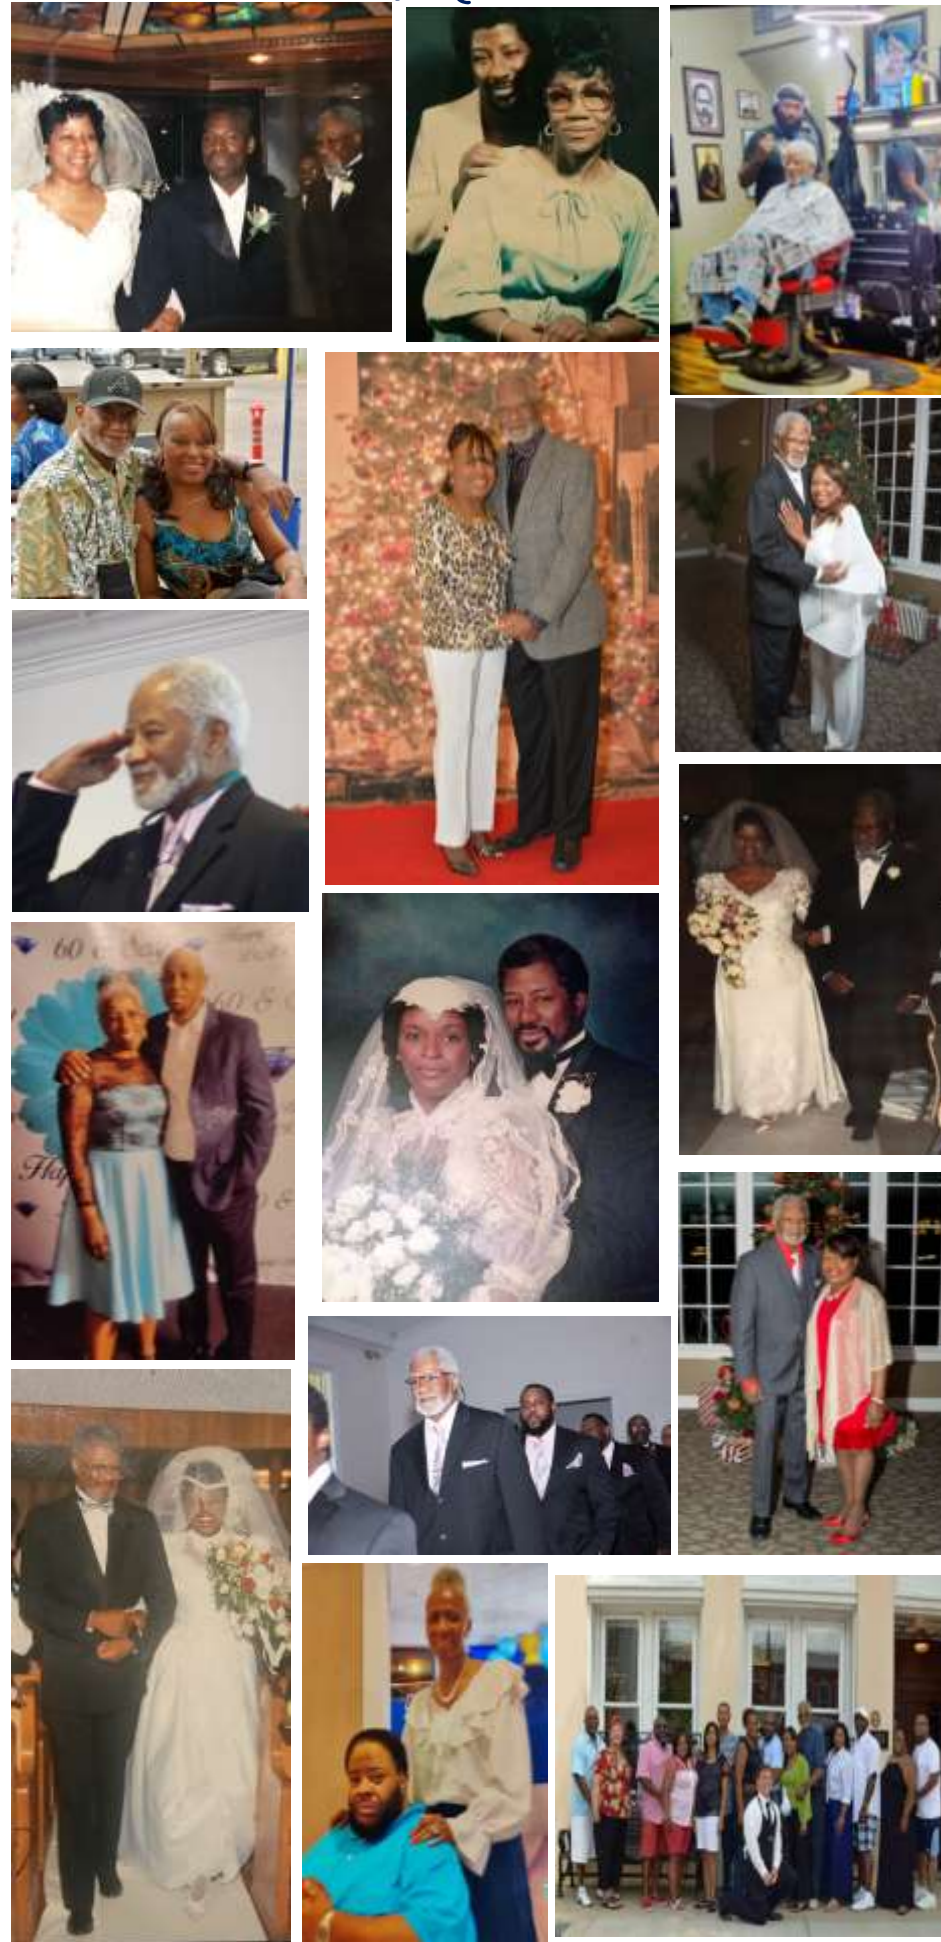

When Clayton accepted Christ and began to regularly attend church services his life took on its real meaning. He loved reading the Bible and took the challenge of reading it through in a year. He became a member of St. James Presbyterian Church in New Jersey where he attended several years. Later he became a member of another congregation where he would prepare breakfast for the children so they would enjoy attending Sunday School. After his marriage, he joined his wife's home church Calvary Baptist Church, Brooklyn, New York where he served as a trustee.

Upon relocating to South Carolina, Clayton became a member of Little Zion Baptist Church where he served on the Usher Board, Gospel Choir, Men's Chorus, Couples Ministry and volunteered his services as the Custodian of the church. Clayton was a gentleman who was always willing to lend a helping hand to family, friends and “strangers in the gate.” He was serious about learning the lessons of the Bible and did not hesitate to ask challenging questions.

Clayton was loved by his family and friends and leaves to cherish his memories, his wife whom he dearly loved, Rosemarie Canty Jordan, two daughters, Ms. Cynthia Howard of Atlanta, GA and Ms. Christine Marshall of New Jersey; one son, Vincent Conover (Lisa) of Pennsylvania; ten grandchildren, fifteen great-grandchildren, two great-great-grandchildren one sister Ms. Victoria Mack of New Jersey and a host of Godchildren, relatives and friends.

“Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.”

Memories

Funeral Service
Saturday, October 21, 2023 – 11:00 a.m.

Little Zion Baptist Church
8229 Winnsboro Road
Blythewood, South Carolina

- Prelude
- Processional
- Opening Hymn.....LZBC Choir
“Oh, I Want To See Him”
- Scripture Readings:
 - Old Testament.....Reverend Benjamin Gridine
Associate Minister, Little Zion Baptist Church
 - New Testament.....Reverend Kisler Williams
Associate Minister, Little Zion Baptist Church
- Prayer of Comfort.....Dr. John L. Davis
Word of God Church and Ministries, Intl.
- Solo.....Mrs. LaShanna Davis
- Video Presentation
- Remarks.....Ms. Victoria Mack, Sister
Mr. Vincent Conover, Son
Deacon Charles Cornelius
Chairman of Deacons Ministry Little Zion Baptist Church
- Selection.....LZBC Men's Chorus
- Words of Comfort.....Pastor Eddie W. Davis
- Viewing.....Funeral Directors
- Recessional
- Postlude

Committal, Benediction, and Interment

12:00 Noon, Monday, October 23, 2023
Fort Jackson National Cemetery
4170 Percival Road
Columbia, South Carolina