Obituary

Ms. Janice Manning was born August 28, 1961 in Columbia, South Carolina. She was the youngest daughter of the late James and Mary E. Manning. She departed this life on Saturday, October 7, 2023.

Janice was educated in the public schools of Richland County, South Carolina and graduated from Keenan High School, Class of 1979. After graduating from high school, she attended Midlands Technical College. She became a Licensed Practical Nurse, and was employed with Pruitt Health in Blythewood, South Carolina.

Janice was baptized at an early age, and joined Pine Grove Community Baptist Church, where she served as a loyal member. She enjoyed family, friends, being a nurse, looking after her great-nieces and nephews, and being the life of the party.

In addition to her parents, Janice was preceded in death by her sister, Lisa Barber.

Ms. Janice Manning leaves to cherish her fond memory: sons, Willie Demont Belton and Jacob Dionrashard Belton, both of Columbia, South Carolina; sister, Vera Manning, of Columbia, South Carolina; brothers, Stanley (Carolyn) Patterson, of Fayetteville, North Carolina, James E. (Joy) Manning, Jr., Rodney Manning, both of Columbia, South Carolina, and Eric (Tiffeny) Manning, of Blythewood, South Carolina; a host of nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, many other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.

Miss Me But Let Me Ga

When I come to the end of the road And the sun has set for me, I want no rites in a gloom-filled room Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little - but not too long And not with your head bowed low. Remember the love that we once shared, Miss me-but let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's Plan,
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart, Go to the friends we know And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds Miss Me - But Let Me Go.

Acknowledgement

We, the family of the late Janice Manning wish to thank each of you for the many expressions and acts of kindness extended to us during this difficult time. Your prayers, love, calls, flowers, and cards of comfort were greatly appreciated. Most importantly, your presence here today has greatly contributed to making this time of sadness easier to bare. May God continue to bless and keep each of you.
