

Obituary of

Mrs. Betty Jean Wages Corbett

Mrs. Betty Jean Wages Corbett was born November 27, 1943, in Columbia, South Carolina. She was the beloved daughter of the late Silas and Luvenia Turnipseed Wages. She departed this earthly life on Monday, October 30, 2023.

She attended the public schools of Richland County, South Carolina. She was a devoted member of Round Top Baptist Church, where she served as a member of the Deaconess Ministry and Grievance Ministry.

She was employed as a teacher and worked at Olympia High School and W. A. Perry Middle school, from which she retired.

Mrs. Betty Jean Wages Corbett leaves to cherish her precious memory: her loving husband, David Dixon Corbett, Sr., of Blythewood, SC; son, David Dixon Corbett, II, of Blythewood, SC; three sisters, Octavia Wages Faith, Edith Staples, and Karen Wages; a host of other loving relatives and caring friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not here to see.
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears of me;
I wish so much you wouldn't cry
The way you did today,
While thinking of the many things,
We didn't get to say.
But when tomorrow starts without me,
Please try to understand,
That an angel came and called my name,
And took me by the hand,
And said my place was ready,
In heaven far above,
And that I'd have to leave behind,
All those I dearly love.
I know how much you love me,
As much as I love you...
And each time you think of me,
I know you'll miss me, too.
So when tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we're far apart...
For every time you think of me,
I'm right here in your heart.
