

A Mother's Tribute

June 16, 2026

Hi Sweetie, Mommy loves you and misses you. Please remember that God is good, and He love you in whatever you want to do in life. Everything here is the same so far. Wish you were home, that way I can stop crying. Call me whenever.

Love Theresa,
Your Mother

To My lovely son. Taylor you are so beautiful in so many ways. I love you and if I had another child, I want them to be just like you in so many ways. It's your 18th birthday and I'm so proud of that. Taylor being with you or not with you.

I love you,
Your Mother
Theresa

TO MY DADDY,

Even though you're gone, you will never be forgotten. I think about my favorite things about you daily, like your smile, your laugh, playing Roblox, hearing your jokes, and listening to you sing to me. Most of all, I miss talking on the phone with you. I re-read the paragraphs you used to send me when you woke up. I love you more than a fat kid loves cake. I will forever be your vanilla chocolate cake.

Love Princess Amirah ❤️

Obituary

Mr. Taylor Corey Gibbs, affectionately known as “Tay G” was born in Columbia, SC, on March 1, 1988, to Frederick Richards and Theresa Yvette Gibbs. He suddenly departed this dear life, transitioning on Friday, November 17, 2023, at the age of 35. He departed this life too soon. Nevertheless, at God’s appointed time.

Taylor accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior at an early age and joined Oak Grove Baptist Church, where he played the drums until he went off to college.

Taylor graduated from W.J. Keenan High School, in Columbia, South Carolina in 2006. Taylor did not stop his quest for education. He attended Edward Waters College, now known as Edward Waters University, in Jacksonville, FL from 2006 until 2011. He graduated with his Bachelor of Arts in Music. During his tenure at Edward Waters College, he participated in “The Triple Threat Marching Band” from 2006-2010. He led the percussion section from 2008-2009 as part of AssassinZ. He also participated in the Edward Waters College Choir from 2009-2011, where he played the drums. Taylor loved music and playing his drums. He believed music was a powerful and universal art form which enriched lives.

After graduating, Taylor continued his passion for playing drums and music. Taylor was employed at various churches across northwest Jacksonville area. Taylor worked at URS Corporation from January 2010 to October 2013 as a material handler and other warehouse jobs in Jacksonville, FL working with logistics from 2013 - 2016. He also worked part time as a drum instructor at Southside Middle School during this time. Taylor moved to Atlanta to further his music career and attended SAE Institute Atlanta from 2016 - 2018. After completion he was hired at SAE Institute of Atlanta as an Audio Engineering Instructor.

Taylor was preceded in death by his maternal grandmother, Mable Gibbs and his cousin, Donnie Gibbs.

Mr. Taylor Corey Gibbs leaves to cherish his memory, honor, and his legacy: his beautiful daughter, Amirah Taylor Danae Gibbs; his parents, Frederick Richards and Theresa Yvette Gibbs; two brothers, Frederick (Tina) Clowney and Frederick (Patricia) Durham; one sister, Towanda (Paul) Greer, all of Columbia, South Carolina; maternal grandparents, James and Anges Gibbs; a special loving aunt, Henrietta (Steve) Ashe; two uncles, Donald (Angie) Gibbs and James Calvin Gibbs; a host of other loving family and friends, all of whom will miss him dearly. His presence and his love for his family and friends will be missed.
