

In Our Hearts

We thought of you with love today but that is nothing new

We thought about you yesterday and days before that too,

We think of you in silence I often speak your name

All I have are memories and your picture in a frame

Your memory is my keepsake with which I'll never part

God has you in His keeping I have you in my heart..

Life Reflections
Mrs. Eartha Lee Fuller Goodwin

Mrs. Eartha Lee Fuller Goodwin, affectionately called “Ma,” was born on June 29, 1936, in Orangeburg, South Carolina. She was the daughter of the late Samuel Fuller, Sr. and Evan Watson. She departed this earthly life at home on Tuesday, November 14, 2023, surrounded by loved ones.

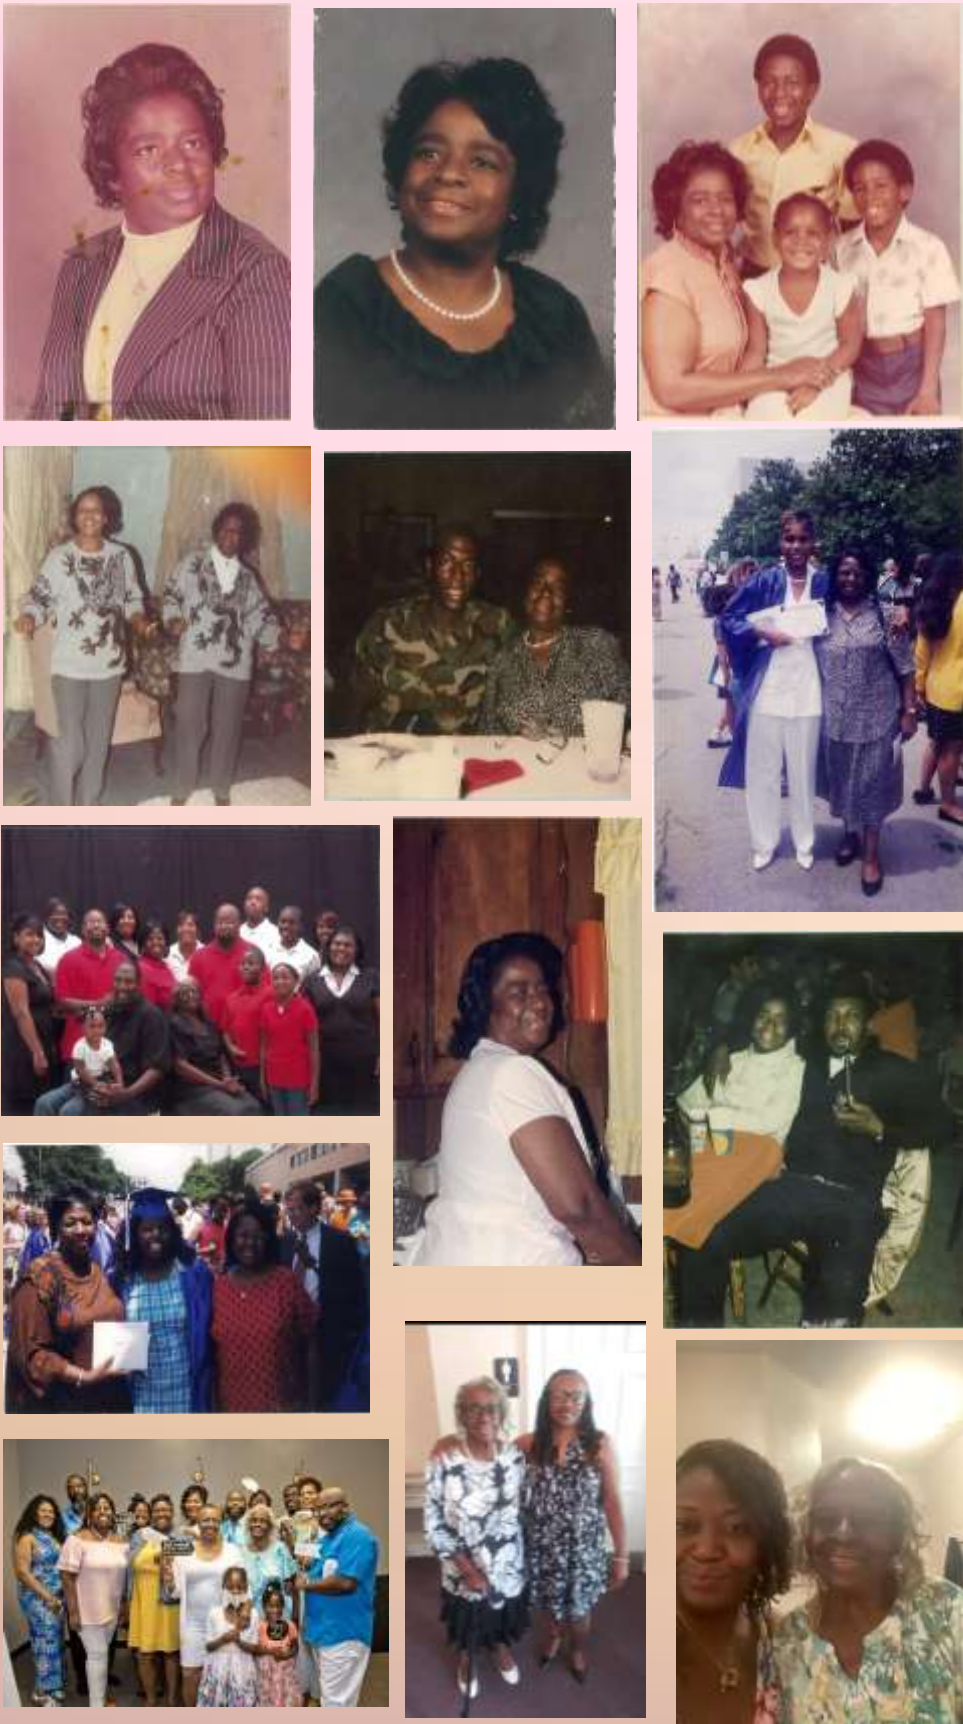

During her early childhood Mrs. Goodwin moved to Columbia, South Carolina with her parents and siblings. She was introduced to Christ at an early age, and she never strayed away. Mrs. Goodwin attended New Hope Baptist Church. She later joined Zion Pilgrim Baptist Church, where she was a faithful member.

Mrs. Goodwin was employed by the Richland One School District for many years before retiring. She enjoyed spending time with family and friends, sitting on her front porch, and listening to old school music. Mrs. Goodwin was a beautiful, loving, and caring person. She had a heart of gold and a smile that would light up a room. Mrs. Goodwin was loved by many and she captured the hearts of everyone who was ever in her presence. She raised many as her own and she will be truly missed.

In addition to her parents, Mrs. Goodwin was preceded in death by her husband, James Goodwin; brothers, William Fuller, Chappelle Fuller, John Fuller, Samuel Fuller, Jr., and Gator Fuller; nieces, Queen Esther Nixson and Justina Glover.

Mrs. Eartha Lee Fuller Goodwin leaves to cherish her precious memory: her son, Eric (Kristi) Goodwin; goddaughter, Betty Ann Chatman; great-nephew, Randy Nixson (who lived in the home); a host of adopted grandchildren, nieces, great-nieces, great-nephews, many other loving relatives, and dear friends.
