

The Broken Chain

We little knew that morning, that God was going to call your name.

In life we loved you, dearly,
in death, we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you,
but you didn't go alone;

For part of us went with you
the day God called you home.

You left us peaceful memories,
your love is still our guide.

And though we cannot see you,
you are always at our side.

Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same.

But as God calls us one by one,
the Chain will link again.

We love and miss you ever so much.

Obituary of Ms. Cedora Tillmon

Ms. Cedora Tillmon was born on April 26, 1940, in West Columbia, South Carolina. She was the oldest child of the late London Tillmon, Sr. and Annie Mae Favor Tillmon.

Ms. Tillmon was educated in Lexington County, South Carolina public schools and graduated from Lakeview High School. She retired after many dedicated years at Rental Uniform Service.

Ms. Tillmon was a dedicated member of Heyward AME Church, Gadson, South Carolina. She enjoyed being around family, especially her “gold” as she would affectionately reference her son. She always enjoyed a cold Pepsi, Snickers, fish and Doublemint Gum. When it came to fashion Ms. Tillmon loved her hair curled and Fashion Fair Pure Plum Lipstick.

She was preceded in death by her parents, London and Annie Mae Tillmon; brother, Leroy Tillman; sisters, Ethel M. Tillmon and Rosa M. Jamison; and grandson Trevor Banks.

Ms. Cedora Tillmon leaves to cherish her memory: her son, Phillip L. D. Tillmon, of Gaston, SC; brothers, London Tillmon, Jr., of Columbia, SC and Raymond Tillmon, of West Columbia, SC; sisters, Catherine Daniels, Annie Bryant, and Pearlene Tillmon, all of Cayce, SC; five grandchildren, Trévias Carter and Isaiah Z. Tillmon, of Columbia, SC; Taliah J. (Kyirra) Tillmon, of Elgin, SC; London E. Tillmon of Gaston, SC, and Shadae Perry, of Washington, D C; two great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, great-nieces; great-nephews; and a host of other relatives and caring friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.
