When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me And I'm not here to see If the sun should rise and find your Eyes filled with tears of me, I wish so much you wouldn't cry The way you did today... While thinking of the many things We didn't get to say. I know how much you love me As much as I love you, And each time you think of me I know you'll miss me, too. So when tomorrow starts without me Don't think we're far apart, For every time you think of me I'm right here in your heart

Life Reflections of Mr. Ronald Gene Goodwin

Mr. Ronald Gene Goodwin was born on February 5, 1949 to the late Willis and Bobbie Jane Argro Goodwin, in Columbia, South Carolina. He was the first of four children born to this union. On Saturday, December 23, 2023, Ronald departed this earthly life and entered eternal rest.

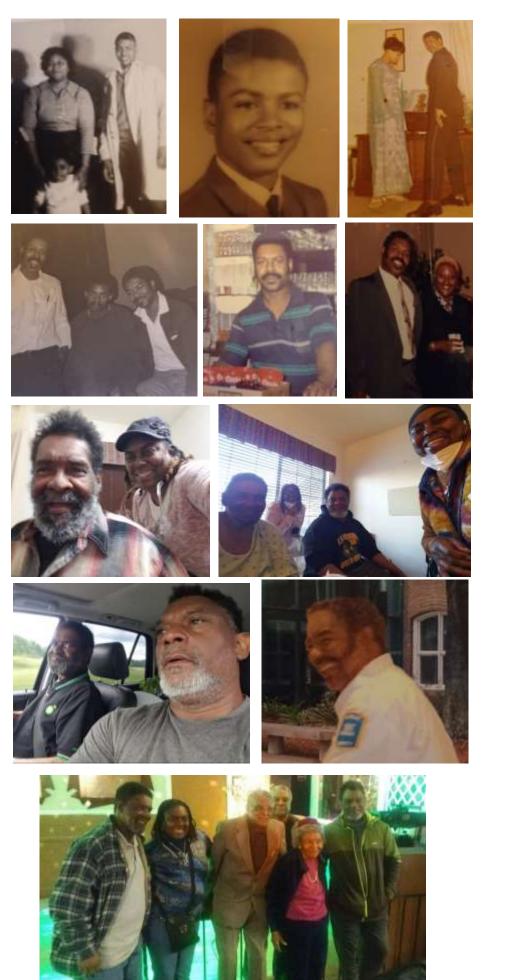

Ronald was educated in the public schools of Columbia (Richland County), South Carolina and was a graduate of C.A. Johnson High School, Class of 1967. He enlisted in the United States Air Force and received an honorable discharge.

He returned to Columbia after the Air Force and was a bartender/cook for many establishments - The Fire Place Lounge, Capital City Club, American Legion Post 215 and Dave's Lounge. Ronald's big voice and big presence were traits that many remember as he lived up to being a "Good One." His last job was as a Security Guard at the SC State Museum, where his smile, spirit and dedication were admired by his coworkers. Though they teased him with his favorite saying of "I didn't do it," he loved this job and would work whenever called - it became his second home.

Ronald was a devoted son who shouldered the task to show up for "Mama" whenever she called. Their trips to Gospel Temple Baptist Church, in Neeses, SC made "Mama" so proud and provided him with great memories even after she passed and stayed on his mind.

Mr. Ronald Goodwin leaves to cherish his precious memory: his wife, Yuriko Toguchi Goodwin; two brothers, Willis Stevie Goodwin, of Columbia, SC and Bryan Ibrahim Goodwin, of Washington, DC; one sister, Gail A. Goodwin of Columbia, SC; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and many other loving relatives and friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.
