As You Live On

*As you live on, do not weep for me,
I have journeyed home to be with my Lord
to sit at his feet,
I have ran my race and now I find a deep peace,
You may not understand as tears fill your eyes,
I would rather you rejoice than sit, somber, and cry,
Please hold on to the memories between you and me,
I will cherish them in my heart for all eternity,
Although we may be apart,
I know I will dwell within your heart,
Stand strong, be of courage, and have faith,
My God has called me home and I could not wait,
So do not weep for me as you live on,
My God has always been in control all along.*

Obituary of Mr. Ordley Heatley, Sr.

Mr. Ordley Heatley, Sr., 90, was born on December 7, 1932 in Lone Star, South Carolina. He was the youngest child of 12 born to the late June and Nelpie Heatley. He departed this life Wednesday, December 6, 2023.

To some family and friends, he was known as “Bud,” but to everyone else he was our “Pop!” He attended Cedar Grove School and church as a child. He met and married Jannie Lloyd on July 14, 1953 and became a member of First Nazareth Baptist Church. He worked at Richland County School District One for thirty years, and retired in 1987.

“Pop” was preceded in death by: his wife, Jannie Heatley; three sons, John Fred, James Daniel, and Joe David Heatley; one daughter, Valerie Heatley Boston; and eleven siblings.

“Pop” leaves to cherish his memory: his two daughters, Rosa Lee Heatley and Gloria Heatley; two sons, Ordley (Carolyn) Heatley, Jr. and Deacon Lawrence (Alfreda) Heatley; sixteen grandchildren; thirty-eight great-grandchildren; five great-great-grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other loving relatives, and friends whom will truly miss him.
