

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me,
And I'm not here to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
Are filled with tears for me

I wish so much you wouldn't cry
The way you did today
While thinking of the many things
We didn't get to say

I know how much you love me
As much as I love you
And each time you think of me
I know you'll miss me too

But when tomorrow starts without me
Please try to understand
That an angel came and called my name
And took me by the hand

And said my place was ready
In Heaven far above
And that I'd have to leave behind
All those I dearly love

But when I walked through Heaven's gate
I felt so much at home
When God looked down and smiled at me
From His great golden throne

He said this is eternity
And all I promised you
Today your life on earth is past
But here it starts anew

I promise no tomorrow
For Today will always last
And since each day's the same way
There's no longing for the past

So when tomorrow starts without me
Don't think we're far apart
For every time you think of me
I'm right here in your heart

Obituary of Mrs. Carolyn Marie Lorick

Mrs. Carolyn Lorick was born on March 30, 1947, in Columbia, South Carolina. She was the beloved daughter of the late Joseph and Eloise Bell-Mitchell. Following an illness, she departed this earthly life at Lexington Medical Center, on December 27, 2023.

Mrs. Lorick was educated in the public schools of Richland County, South Carolina, and graduated Class of 1965 from C. A. Johnson High School. Nearly fifty-five years ago, she entered into Holy Matrimony with David Lorick, and they built an endearing life together. A devoted wife and mother, Mrs. Lorick opened her heart and home to three grandchildren whom she also reared as her own children. The Matriarch of her family, Mrs. Lorick was selfless and worked diligently to support her family. Known for speaking with authority and guiding them with a firm hand, Mrs. Lorick showed them nothing less than unconditional love.

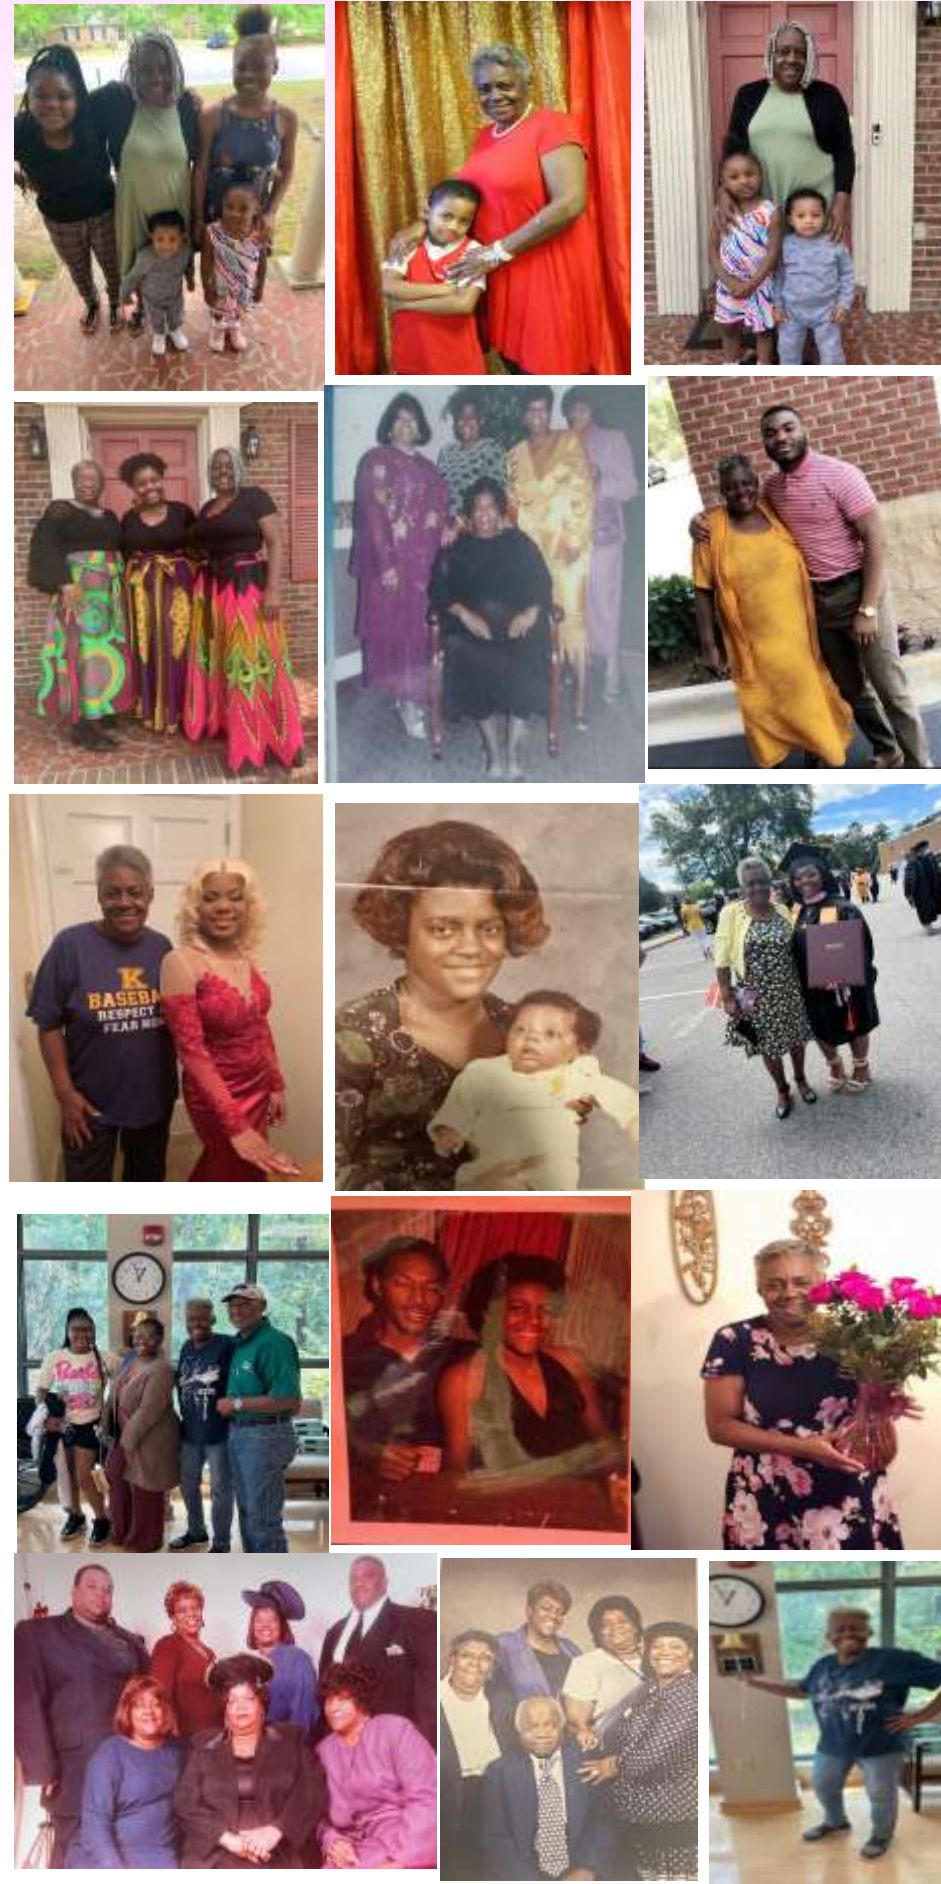

Mrs. Lorick, was a phenomenal woman who walked firmly in her faith. At an early age, she was baptized in Zion Chapel Baptist Church #1. Later, she became a member of Second Calvary Baptist Church. She embodied the characteristics of the Proverbs 31 Woman. She was faithful to her church, family, and career. As president of the choir, she served her church with passion, ensuring that the praise and worship services honored the presence of the Lord and permeated the hearts of humankind. Undaunted by adversity, she faced her challenges with strength and resilience. While battling sickness in the latter months of her life, Mrs. Lorick faith did not waver.

Mrs. Lorick, exemplified the highest standard of work ethics. She was a dedicated employee to Allied Chemical for 30 years. In the latter season of her life, she was employed with St. Paul's Child Care Ministry, a career that gave her unspeakable joy and the children she served received a wealth of love from her.

Mrs. Lorick, was preceded in death by her parents, Joseph and Eloise Bell-Mitchell; brother, Joseph Alexander; and sisters, Rebecca Myers and Willie Mae Dubard.

Mrs. Lorick, leaves to cherish her precious memory, her loving husband, David Lorick; sons Sanchez Lorick, Sr., and "Sanchez Lorick, Jr."; step-son, Cory Tucker, all of Columbia, SC; step-daughter, Sonya (James) Knox, of Atlanta, GA; brother, Henry Timothy, of Columbia, SC; sisters, Lillian (Nathaniel) Alston, Mary (Thomas) Roach, and Naomi Breakinridge, all of Columbia, SC; four grand-daughters, Christian Lorick, Ja'Sonya Lorick, T'Kayla Mack, and Chezney Lorick, all of Columbia, SC; grandson, Jason Johnson, of Columbia, SC; sister-in-laws, Cheryl (Lawrence) Coleman, of Irmo, SC ; Rosalind Lorick, of Atlanta, GA; brother-in-law, Harold (Sharlina) Lorick, of Blythewood, SC; three adopted grandchildren; host of nieces, nephews, many other loving relatives and caring friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.
