

The Broken Chain

We little knew that morning, that God was going to call your name.

In life we loved you, dearly,
in death, we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you,
but you didn't go alone;

For part of us went with you the day God called you home.

You left us peaceful memories,
your love is still our guide.

And though we cannot see you,
you are always at our side.

Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same.

But as God calls us one by one,
the Chain will link again.

We love and miss you ever so much.

Obituary

Ms. Jean Ann Moore born on February 20, 1951, in Columbia, South Carolina. She departed this life on Thursday, November 30, 2023. Jean was educated in the Richland County public school systems. She accepted Jesus Christ at an early age, and throughout her life encouraged several members of the family to be build their own relationship with Christ.

Although Jean started her career late in life, she was a dedicated employee and fed many of the students that attended The University of South Carolina. Even after retiring from the University, she would often run into some of the former students and would always have an encouraging and uplifting word for each one of them.

Jean Ann Moore was always kind and courteous and willing to help whenever she could. She loved to cook and feed her family and would often just sit back and watch everyone during times of family gatherings. Jean loved to love on the people she loved and sometimes you can catch her just staring at her loved ones with a big grin on her face. Jean would put you in your place when your wrong and still love on you at the same time. She always spoke the truth even when you didn't want to hear it and didn't have no problems with telling it like it is. Everyone always knew where you stood with her. Either she liked you or she didn't.

She was preceded in death by her brothers, Marion Moore, James Moore, and Joseph Moore; and sister, Mildred Chinn.

Jean is survived by her one daughter, Nezettia Moore; two sons, Clifford Moore and Warren Moore; eight grandchildren, Timothy Moore, Jarvis Moore, Tramell Moore, Toddnesha Smith, Varn Smith, Jr., Sayda Moore, Warren Moore, Jr., and Clisean Moore; her sister, Georgia Williams; brother, Moses Moore; twenty great-grandchildren; nineteen nieces and nephews; a host of other relatives and friends that she gained the way, with one special person being Andrew("Arthur" because Jean renamed him.)

Though she is gone she will never be forgotten, and she will be sorely missed.
