To my non biological Mom:

You may have not given me the gift of life, but life gave me the gift of you. Thank you for bringing joy, care and support into my life. I appreciate you and I love you with all my heart. Thank you for loving me as your own.

Love always, Ladrika S. Harrison

Obituary

Ms. Saadia Lunette Pittman was born December 26, 1954 in Dothan, Alabama to the late Shirley Hitchmon Pittman and Hezekiah Pittman. She was called from labor to reward on Friday, December 15, 2023, at Agape Hospice House, in Lexington, SC.

Saadia graduated in 1972 from John Adams High School, in Queens, New York. She attended Florida A&M University and Queensborough Community College. She later moved back to Miami Florida and worked with her Uncle John. Saadia stumbled upon Cheraw, SC and that became her home. She was a cook for many years at the Country Kitchen Restaurant and everyone's personal chef. She was known for the best fried chicken. She was fun loving, very kind, and loved everybody's kids. Saadia was also known as the junk talker or for always having something funny to say. Saadia enjoyed the outdoors and just being around her grandkids. She had such a sweet spirit and a heart of gold. Saadia would give her last to anyone.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Shirley Hitchmon Pittman; father, Hezekiah Pittman; and sister, Merita Rose Pittman.

Ms. Saadia Lunette Pittman leaves to cherish her memory: a son, Alexander Lee Pittman, of Columbia, SC; daughter, Ashley (Kinte) Breeden, of Lexington, SC; a bonus daughter, La'drika Harrison, of Cheraw, SC; seven grandchildren, Quan'Darious, Sa'Daijah, Kaliah, and Sayonce Pittman, Micah Jordan, Kinley and Kelani Breeden, all of Lexington, SC; one brother, Efrem Pittman, of Bronx, New York; three maternal uncles of Miami, Florida; a special uncle, John Hitchmon; very close paternal aunt, Kathy Pittman; a very special cousin/sister, Nena Ansari and her four sons that adored Saadia; a very close sister-in law, Janie Reid; nephew, Brandon Reid; special god daughters, Courtney Tillman and Aleshia Burns; two best friends, Carrie Mae Byrd and Vicky Melton; a host of adopted children, grandchildren, nieces, nephews, friends, and other relatives.
