I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.

I took His hand when I heard His call

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day

To laugh, to love, to work, or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way

I found the peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void

Then fill it with remembered joys

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss

Oh yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much,

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart, and peace to thee-

God wanted me now; He has set me free.

Obituary of

Mr. London Tillmon, Jr.

Mr. London Tillmon, Jr., of Columbia, South Carolina, was born on June 23, 1946, 77 wonderful years ago, in Lexington County, South Carolina. He was the son of the late London and Annie Mae Favor Tillmon. On Wednesday evening, December 6, 2023, at 10:45 p.m., Jesus sent His angels from above to bring His precious child home to eternal rest from MUSC, in Columbia, South Carolina.

Mr. Tillmon was educated in the public schools of Lexington County, South Carolina, where he was a graduate of Lakeview High School, Class of 1964. He retired after working many dedicated years at Pontiac Foods.

Mr. Tillmon was a very active and dedicated member of Heyward A.M.E. Church, in Gaston, South Carolina. He loved spending time with his family. In his leisure time, he loved watching his favorite teams the Atlanta Braves and the Pittsburgh Steelers.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by: his wife, Deloris Tillmon; brothers, Nathaniel Tillmon and Leroy Tillmon; sisters, Marie Tillmon, Cedora Tillmon, Ethel Mae Tillmon, and Rosa Mae Jamison.

Though the presence of one so dear is no more, precious memories are left in the hearts of so many including: a special niece, Annie D. Tillman, of the home; brother, Raymond Tillmon, of West Columbia, SC; sisters, Catherine Daniels, Annie Bryant, and Pearlene Tillman, all of Cayce, SC; a host of nieces nephews, many other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.
