

Psalm 23:4

“Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for You are with me; Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me.”

Her Journey's Just Begun

*Don't think of her as gone away,
her journey's just begun
Life holds so many facets, this earth is only one.
Just think of her as resting from the sorrows and the tears
In a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days or years.
Think how she must be wishing that we could know today
How nothing but our sadness, can really pass away.
And think of her as living in the hearts of those she touched
For nothing loved is ever lost
And she was loved so much.*

She was educated in the public schools of Santee, South Carolina. She was preceded in death by: her parents; her husband, Kinnie Lee Williams, Sr.; a son, Harold Williams; sisters, Bertha Hanton and Mildred Martin; brothers, Charles Keitt and Edward Drayton; and a great-grandson, Steven Wilson.
