

God's Eternal Plan

God gives to us the gift of life
To cherish from our birth.
He gives us family, friends, and loved ones,
To share our days on earth.
He watches over us with loving care,
And takes us by the hand.

He blesses us with joy and hope,
And gently guides the life we've planned.
Then when our life on earth is done,
He calls us to His side,
Where we can live with Him eternally,
And where peace and love abide.

Obituary

Mrs. Dawn Coleta Stalley Zeigler was born in Harlem, New York on August 12, 1965, to the late Oscar Harris, Sr. and Carolyn Gatling. She departed her earthly life on Friday, December 8, 2023.

She was predeceased by her husband, Michael Zeigler, the love of her life; her mother, Carolyn Gatling; her father, Oscar Harris; her grandmother/caregiver, Adell Harris; grandfather, William (Harry) Harris; her aunt, Elizabeth Hayes; her sister, Osha Harris; cousins/Siblings, Eric Jowers, Sean Jowers, and Eyvette Jowers.

Dawn received her education in the New York City Public School System. Later in life, she moved with her family to South Carolina to be closer to her mother. She always had an eye for entrepreneurship and became a licensed insurance agent.

She was a loving and doting mother to her children. Dawn was a talented cook with the ability to taste something once and remake it just as great, but often much better. She was a naturalist, often sharing herbal or old remedies with others. She practiced the Muslim faith and was dedicated to Allah.

Mrs. Dawn Colleta Stalley Zeigler is survived by: her children, Leon and Mustafa (Veronique); her step children, Al-Sharief (Denise), Michelle, and Khaleim; her sisters, Sonia (Brandon) and Frances (Larry); her step-sister, Daphne; her brothers, Oscar and Malachi; her cousin/brother, Lynn (Valerie); her uncle, Joseph “Mikey” Stalley; her step-mother, Jeryl Harris-Hunt; a host of grandchildren, cousins, nieces, nephews, many other relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.
