Reflections of the Life of Mr. Kevin Emery Bolden

Mr. Kevin Emery Bolden was born to Katie Fletcher Bolden and the late Elbert Bolden on July 2, 1971, in Columbia, South Carolina. He was affectionately known by family and friends as “Shawty Bolden” and entered his rest with the Lord on Monday, January 22, 2024.

Kevin was educated in the public school systems of Richland School District Two, where he graduated from Richland Northeast High School Class of 1989. He later attended classes at Midlands Technical College. Kevin pursued a career in General Contracting, where he developed a number of skills, but had a passion for installing vinyl siding. He employed many individuals, where under his workmanship enhanced their skills in the profession of vinyl siding.

He used his expertise to help senior citizens in need through the Project H.O.P.E. Program. Kevin was a person you can depend upon when needed. He was family-oriented and made sure he expressed his love to them. Any that encounter Kevin, he would be sure to put a smile on your face with his singing, dancing, and clapping. He was always the life of the party and to know him was to love him.

Left to cherish precious memories are: his beloved mother, Katie Mae Fletcher Bolden of Columbia South Carolina; his precious daughter, Karesse Bolden of Columbia, South Carolina; two brothers, Melvin Riley of Columbia, South Carolina, and Iric Bolden of Columbia, South Carolina; two sisters, Alisa Bolden of Charlotte, North Carolina, Michelle (Amir) Bolden of Columbia, South Carolina; four half-brothers and two half-sisters, Marlon Evans of Columbia, South Carolina, Reggie Harvey, Dawn Harvey, Krista Austin, Dayna Lawson, and Dominic Lawson, all of Wichita, Kansas; very special fiancée, Camala Townsend, of Apollo Beach, Florida; three nieces, DeAlisa (Jamal) Parker of Virginia Beach, VA, Erica Hildebrand of Duncan, South Carolina, and Samaya Moore of Columbia, South Carolina; and host of uncles, aunts, cousins, relatives, and friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took His hand when I heard His call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found the peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart, and peace to thee-
God wanted me now; He has set me free.
