Navigating Changes

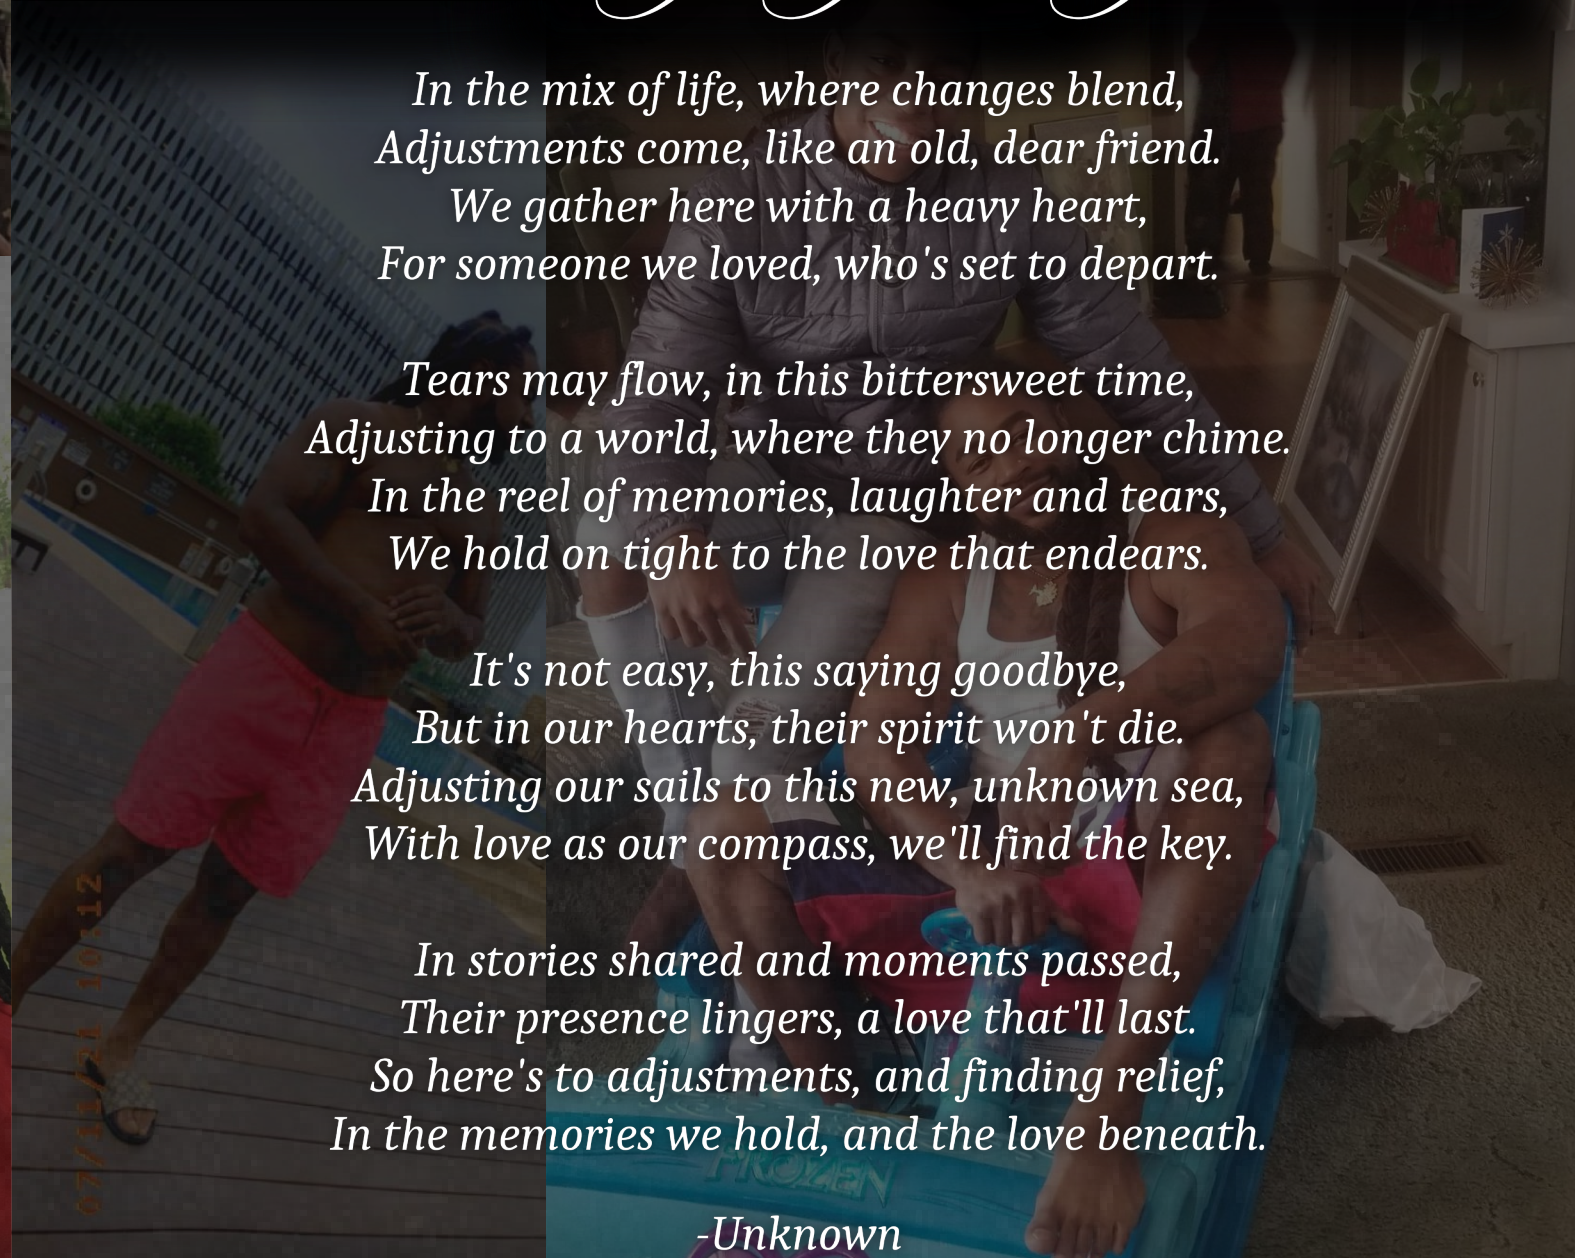

*In the mix of life, where changes blend,
Adjustments come, like an old, dear friend.
We gather here with a heavy heart,
For someone we loved, who's set to depart.*

*Tears may flow, in this bittersweet time,
Adjusting to a world, where they no longer chime.
In the reel of memories, laughter and tears,
We hold on tight to the love that endears.*

*It's not easy, this saying goodbye,
But in our hearts, their spirit won't die.
Adjusting our sails to this new, unknown sea,
With love as our compass, we'll find the key.*

*In stories shared and moments passed,
Their presence lingers, a love that'll last.
So here's to adjustments, and finding relief,
In the memories we hold, and the love beneath.*
