

The Broken Chain

We little knew that morning,
that God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you, dearly,
in death, we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
but you didn't go alone;
For part of us went with you
the day God called you home.
You left us peaceful memories,
your love is still our guide.
And though we cannot see you,
you are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken,
and nothing seems the same.
But as God calls us one by one,
the Chain will link again.

We love and miss you ever so much.

Obituary of Mr. Cyrus Weston, Jr.

*For I am ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.
2 Timothy 4:6-7*

Mr. Cyrus Weston, Jr., affectionately known as Sonny, was born on August 19, 1938, in Hopkins, South Carolina to the late Cyrus, Sr. and Julia Thompson Weston. He gained his heavenly wings early Thursday morning, January 18, 2024.

Cyrus was educated in the public schools of Richland County, South Carolina. At an early age, he was baptized at Zion Benevolent Baptist Church. Cyrus was employed with National Linen Service, where he retired after 42 years of service. He was also employed part time at Siebles Bruce, where he also retired after many years of dedicated service.

Cyrus was a quiet, soft spoken person with a calm and peaceful demeanor. He loved his family and valued time spent with them. During his younger years, he played baseball in the community. He loved to cook and go fishing. Two of his favorite past times were watching westerns and sports on tv.

In addition to his parents, Cyrus was preceded in death by two sons, Anthony Weston and Tyron Weston.

Mr. Cyrus Weston, Jr. leaves to cherish his memory: his loving companion, Prestine Wesley; his former wife, Rebecca J. Weston; one son, Cyrus A. (Annette) Weston; one daughter, Rosezetta Johnson-Hipps; three grandchildren and five great-grandchildren; four brothers, Jacie, Robert (Sarah), James (Mary), and Ulysses (Julia); five sisters, Susie Mae Adams, Rosena Brown, Carrie (Willie) Gridine, Mary Randolph, and Julia (Glenn) Mitchell; two brothers-in-law; one sister-in-law; a host of nieces, nephews, many other loving relatives, and friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.
