

GOD SAW YOU GETTING TIRED

God saw you getting tired
and a cure was not to be so He put His arms around you and whispered, "Come to Me."
With tearful eyes we watched you and saw you pass away
although we love you dearly
we could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating hard working hands at rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.

Obituary

Ms. Temeyka Jacquetta Press Williams was born July 12, 1968, in New Jersey. She was the daughter of the late Shirley Ann Douglas Reed and the late Hamman Waheed. Temeyka transitioned on Saturday, January 27, 2024, in Columbia, South Carolina.

Temeyka lived in New York for a great part of her childhood but eventually moved to Columbia, South Carolina with her mother and siblings. She was educated in the Richland County Public Schools. After graduating from Dreher High school, Temeyka enjoyed working and spending time with her family. She met her husband Julius, Sr., and they began to build a beautiful friendship which turned into 36 years of a lovely marriage, and they gave birth to their son Julius Jr. During her work history of many trades, Temeyka found comfort and inspiration working with her team at Walmart for 10 years. She retired to be a stay-at-home wife and mother, and began her business of creating custom items. Temeyka loved to talk, smile, and make people laugh. She had a kind and delicate spirit. Throughout her life no matter what she may have gone through, she always showed support and love to her family, friends, and even strangers.

In addition to her parents, Temeyka was preceded in death by her brothers, Nathaniel Hilliard II, Tommy Hilliard, and Carl Hilliard; sisters, Jeromna Press and Jeri Press.

Temeyka is survived by her husband, Julius Williams, Sr.; her son, Julius Williams, Jr., of Columbia, SC; her siblings, Donna Hilliard, of Orangeburg, SC, Kenneth (Sherrie) Hilliard, of Columbia, SC, Joe (Christina) Hilliard, of Philadelphia, PA, Jerome (Jacqueline) Hilliard, of Columbia, SC, Latina (Vanita) Hilliard, of Columbia, SC, Badr Waheed, of Philadelphia, PA, Khalil Jackson, of Philadelphia, PA, Mahasin Waheed, of Camden, New Jersey, Nikki Press, of Camden, New Jersey, and Faatimah Waheed, of Jacksonville, North Carolina, and a hosts of nieces and nephews and other loved ones that will miss her deeply.
