

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.

I took His hand when I heard His call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found the peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart, and peace to thee-
God wanted me now; He has set me free.

Life's Reflection of Little Miss Airest Skylan Ja'Laya Barber

Airest Barber was born on January 28, 2023 and met the eyes of Jesus peacefully in the arms of her family and loved ones on Monday, February 5, 2024. She brought immense joy and love to every life she touched during her life on Earth.

Airest was the daughter of Ja'Corey Barber and Camry Gaillard; and a special niece of Tequita and Shamika Wallace and James Gownes.

She is celebrated by her maternal grandparents, Wanda Gaillard and Tyrone Davis and paternal grandparents, Suzette Jamison and Rico (Demetria) Barber; paternal great-grandfather, Benjamin Richardson; paternal great-grandmother, Dorothy (William) Young and paternal great- great-grandmother, Mary Barr.

Airest is preceded in death by: her maternal great-great-grandmother, Lillie Barkley; great-grandmother, Marion Jackson and paternal great-grandmother, Gwendolyn Dixon, who are now holding and loving her gently in heaven.

Airest is also celebrated by a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and god parents, Rayna Bamberg and Marquise Seabrooks.

Airest gave us a lifetime of love during her time on earth and is now our beautiful angel that continues to provide us comfort and peace.
