

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.

I took His hand when I heard His call

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found the peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart, and peace to thee-
God wanted me now; He has set me free.

Obituary of Mr. Kelly Andreas Cancer

Mr. Kelly Andreas Cancer was born January 5, 1969, to the late Randolph Advent and Mary Cancer, in New York City, New York. He was the oldest of three children.

Kelly graduated from Irmo High School, Class of 1987 and was an alumnus of Newberry College, Class of 2001. After graduating college, he enlisted in the U. S. Army as a ranked soldier. He served 16 years as a Captain in the United States Army in the Medic Division.

Both his service and civilian career at Metso Outotec enabled him to travel the world making a powerful impact on those he met. In his leisure time, Kelly was part of the APA Pool players, in which the APA became the 2024 8-Ball Classic Champions at the Aiken, South Carolina Regional.

Kelly was a Christian and believed in the word of God. On Friday morning, February 2, 2024, Kelly transitioned peacefully in his sleep, at home in Columbia, South Carolina.

He leaves loving thoughts and cherished memories to: his mother Mary Cancer; three sons, TreVon, Marcel, and Trindon Cancer; two sisters, Nichole Cancer and Ranita Webb; two stepdaughters, Talja and Monic West; one grandson, Marcel, Jr.; one nephew, Aaron Webb; brother-in-law, Carlton Webb; a host of other loving family and friends all of whom will miss him dearly.

“As today I know I’m living, but tomorrow could make me the past, but that I mustn’t fear. For I’ll know deep in my mind the love of me I’ve left behind. Cause I’ll be loving you always.”
