

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.

I took His hand when I heard His call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found the peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart, and peace to thee-
God wanted me now; He has set me free.

Obituary of Mrs. Maggie T. Fullylove

Mrs. Maggie T. Fullylove was born on July 4, 1935, in Columbia, South Carolina. She was one of six children of the late Charlie Burton and Sallie Goodwin Burton. She departed this life on Wednesday, February 21, 2024.

Maggie was educated in the public schools of Richland County, Columbia, South Carolina. She was a member of Bethlehem Baptist Church, College Place for many years. Maggie served on the Pulpit Aide Ministry, Senior Usher Ministry, the Missionary Society, and the Benevolence Committee. Her love for Christ and the church was heartfelt. Maggie wholeheartedly loved Pastor McCallum and his family. She had a passion for cooking and entertaining family and friends. Her kind and gentle spirit fed many people both spiritually and physically. She was very eloquent in her ways and was a very proud homemaker. Maggie displayed tremendous love for gardening and catching a good sale.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Alfred Fullylove; and her son, Hayward Taylor, Jr.

Mrs. Maggie T. Fullylove leaves to mourn her passing: her sons, William Taylor and Ronald D. Taylor; daughters, Renee Fullylove Bailey, all of Columbia, South Carolina and Gloria Faye Domino, of Longview, Texas; eleven grandchildren; thirteen great-grandchildren; twenty-nine great-great-grandchildren; one great-great-great-grandchild; ten nieces; nine nephews; one godson, LTC Victor Adams; a host of other loving relatives and caring friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.
