

Always In Your Hearts

Picture me as I was
Full of life and love.
Although not with you now,
I'm watching from above,
I know how much
You miss me
And I miss you too!
It was my time to leave,
As each of us will do
Although not in your arms
I'm always in your hearts.
The precious love we shared,
Means we're never far apart.

Obituary of Mrs. Maggie Robinson Giviens

Mrs. Maggie Robinson Giviens was born on April 30, 1942, in Columbia, South Carolina to the late George and Cora Lee Robinson. She peacefully departed this earthly life on February 26, 2024, at Prisma Health Baptist Hospital.

Mrs. Giviens was baptized at an early age, and became a member of Second Nazareth Baptist Church

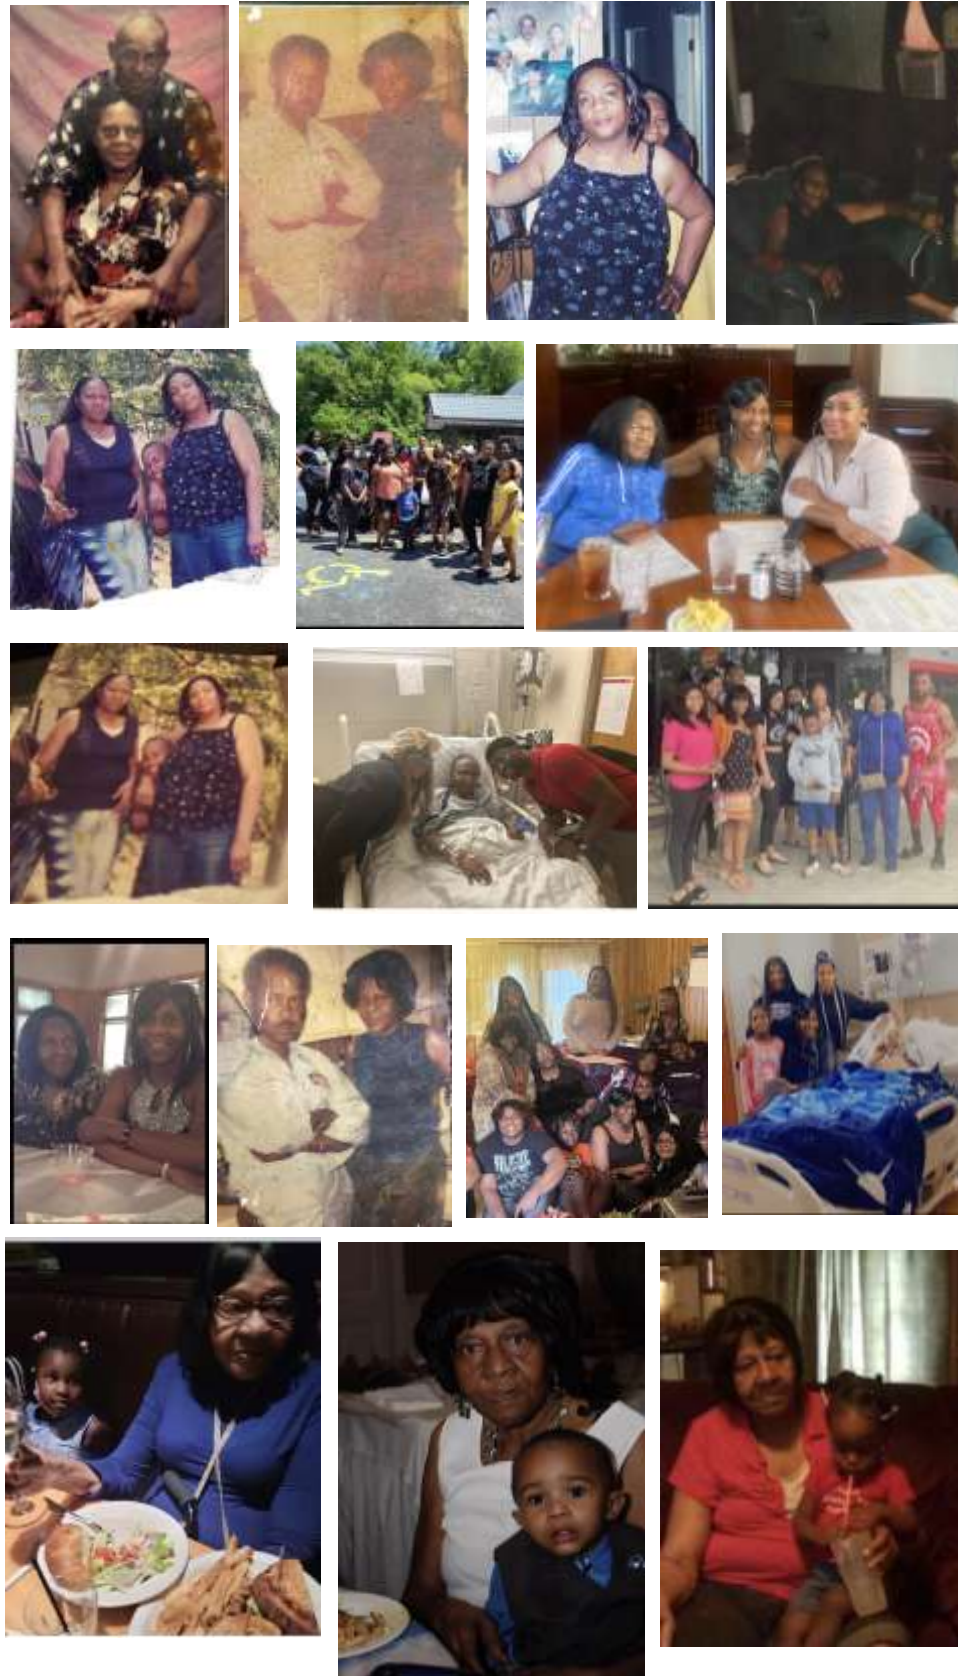

Mrs. Giviens was educated in the public schools of Richland County, South Carolina, and attended Booker T. Washington High School. Early in life, she married the love of her life, the late Arthur Giviens and together they raised three loving daughters. Mrs. Giviens found joy in staying home and taking care of her family as a homemaker.

Being nurturing and caring, her home was always opened to those in need. She was known as the neighborhood grandma and provided home cooked meals to anyone who wanted to eat or was there for anyone who needed a listening ear. Although cooking was one of her favorite things to do, she also enjoyed spending quality time with family and friends.

In addition to her parents and husband, Mrs. Giviens was preceded in death by a daughter, Cora C. Robinson; and grandson, Franklyn "Mario" Robinson.

Mrs. Maggie Robinson Giviens leaves to mourn her passing: daughters, Dianne Harris and Arleen Mitchell; one sister-in-law, Doretha Adams, all of Columbia, South Carolina; eleven grandchildren; twenty-three great-grandchildren; a host of other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.
