I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.

I took His hand when I heard His call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found the peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart, and peace to thee-
God wanted me now; He has set me free.

Obituary

Mr. Charles McCoy was born June 8, 1949 in Columbia, SC to the late Louis McCoy and Ellen McCoy Satterfield. He departed this life on Wednesday, February 28, 2024, at Prisma Health Heart Center.

Charles was a loving and amazing husband, father, brother, grandfather, uncle, cousin and friend. He was educated in the public schools of Richland County, graduating from C.A. Johnson High School. He retired from the United States Marines, where he served in Vietnam.

Charles married his high school sweetheart, Casino S. Brown. As of February 2024, the two were married for 53 years, and to that union three children were born.

Charles was well loved, loved many, and always greeted you with his infectious smile and deep dimples. He had a passion for bowling and was known as the left-handed curb bowler which he won countless tournaments.

In addition to his parents Charles was preceded in death by his stepfather, Fred Satterfield; two sisters, Mattie McCoy Davis and Dorothy McCoy Chestnut; six brothers, John, Lewis, Elijah, Frank, Berry, and Benjamin McCoy; and one grandson, Charles.

Charles leaves behind his loving and devoted wife, Casino McCoy; two daughters, Chreese (Forest Payne) and Latonya; a son, Dennis, all of Columbia, SC.; sisters; Mary McCoy Wilson, Annette Williams, Tara Satterfield, all of Columbia, SC, and Barbara McCoy Hunter, of Brooklyn, New York; a host of grandchildren, nieces, nephews, many other loving relatives, and friends, all of whom loved him unconditionally and will miss him dearly.
