Mr. Marvin L. Perry was born August 26, 1945, in Columbia, South Carolina. He was the son of the late Thompson Isaac, Sr. and Mary Perry Isaac. He departed this life on Tuesday, February 27, 2024, after a brief illness.

Mr. Perry attended public schools of Richland County, South Carolina and spent many years employed by industries in Columbia, South Carolina and Newark, New Jersey. In his formative years, Mr. Perry also possessed a natural art for cooking, especially sweet treats. Mr. Perry truly loved his family and often expressed joy during visits. Although Mr. Perry did not have biological children, he cherished the special bond with his nieces and nephews.

In addition to his parents, Mr. Perry was preceded in death by his sisters, Thomasina Isaac, Marilyn Perry Byrns, Kay Isaac, Catherine LaVern Fields, and Kathleen Isaac Brown; one brother, Thompson Isaac, Jr.; and one nephew, Jarek C. Boyd. Mr. Perry lived a beautiful life and with a joyful look just two days before his transition to be with the Lord, he said to his eldest niece with a smile, “don’t ya’ll forget about me.”

Mr. Marvin Perry leaves to cherish his fond and witty memory: two brothers, Pervis Isaac of Columbia, SC and Derrick Isaac of Lincoln, Nebraska; four sisters, Connie Isaac Boyd, Jacqueline Isaac, Debbie Isaac Moyd, all of Columbia, SC, and Irma Adkins of Tennessee; 46 nieces and nephews, 28 great-nieces and great-nephews; a host of other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss his caring spirit and cute way of rhyming your name. He also had a dog named Chloe, that he loved dearly.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little - but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's Plan,
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss Me - But Let Me Go.
