I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took His hand when I heard His call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found the peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart, and peace to thee-
God wanted me now; He has set me free.

Obituary of Mr. Mack Simpson

Mr. Mack Simpson was born on July 15, 1977, in Columbia, South Carolina. He was the son of Pastor Roy Lee Simpson, Sr. and the late Evangelist Doris Simpson. Mack transitioned from this life on Saturday, February 17, 2024.

Mack was raised in Blythewood, South Carolina, where he was educated in the public schools, of Richland School District Two. He was a 1996 graduate of Spring Valley High School.

As a young man, he grew up helping in his father’s logging business. Mack later ventured out and started operating heavy equipment for more than 25 years. He enjoyed hunting, fishing, and hanging out with his family and friends.

In addition to his mother, Mack was preceded in death by his sister, Teresa Simpson; and brothers, Michael Jerome Simpson and Roy Lee Simpson, Jr.

Mr. Mack Simpson leaves to cherish his memory: his son, Marquise Simpson; father, Roy Lee Simpson, Sr.; brothers, Calvin Simpson and Christian Simpson; sisters, LaKesha Davis (Curtis) and Mathlene Youmans; seven nieces; a host of loving aunts, uncles, other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss him dearly while reflecting on the many days of laughter and joyful times spent with him.
