

A Hero's Welcome

By: Robert Longley

Time to come home dear brother

Your tour of duty through

You've given as much as anyone

Could be expected to do.

Just a few steps further

The smoke will start to clear

Others here will guide you

You have no need to fear.

You have not failed your brothers

You dearly gave it all

And through your selfless actions

Others will hear the call.

So, take your place of honor

Among those who have gone before

And know you will be remembered

For now, and evermore.

Obituary
of
Mr. Jeremiah Cook

Mr. Jeremiah Cook was born on September 25, 1934, in Leesburg, South Carolina. He was the son of the late Nickolas Cook and Ethel Mae Barnes. Jeremiah departed this earthly life on Monday, March 11, 2024.

Mr. Cook graduated from C.A. Johnson High School. After high school, he went on to serve his country in the United States Army from 1957 – 1959. After his tour of service to our country ended, he became employed as a Certified Nursing Assistant at Montrose Veterans Hospital, in Montrose, New York, from which he retired. He enjoyed fishing and spending time with his family.

Mr. Jeremiah Cook is survived by his wife of 60 years, Lillie Ruth Beverly Cook; stepdaughter, Earnestine Beverly; brother, Marvin Suber; sisters, Margaret Lawrence and Frances Allen; granddaughters, Glenda T. Beverly, Stephanie Doyle, Sade Doyle, and Tasha Thompson; one grandson, Reginald Beverly; other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.

Acknowledgement

We, the family of Mr. Jeremiah Cook, would like to express our sincere appreciation and gratitude to all who have shown comforting expressions of love, sympathy, and prayers, during the passing of our loved one.
