

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little - but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's Plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss Me - But Let Me Go.

Honoring HIS LIFE

Mr. Mack Gibbs

August 29, 1939 – March 24, 2024

Obituary

Mr. Mack Gibbs was born on August 29, 1939, in Blaney, South Carolina. He was the son of the late James Gibbs and Patient Robinson. He departed this life on Sunday, March 24, 2024.

Mack was a devoted member of Mount Prospect United Methodist Church, where he served as a Trustee, served on the Finance Committee, and many other roles. He took pride in his service to the church and wasn't afraid to welcome others to join in on praise and worship services.

Mack was a good conversationalist. When anyone would visit with him, all you had to do was sit, listen, and he would do all the talking. He loved his children dearly and spoke of them often. Overall, Mack could simply be described as a man with a pleasing and pleasant personality.

Mr. Mack Gibbs leaves to mourn his passing: two sons, Mack Gibbs, Jr. and Tonnie (Willie Mae) Gibbs, both of Columbia, South Carolina; four daughters, Diana Roseborough, Alberta Gibbs-Bray, Sarah (Eugene) Gibbs Bell, of Columbia, South Carolina, and Erica (Dontra) Hucks Floyd, of Texas; brothers, Charles Gibbs, of Columbia, SC; two sisters, Ethel Gibbs, of Columbia, South Carolina and Gracie Gibbs, of Monroe, North Carolina; a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.
