Obituary of Mr. Petro Arnold Moore

Mr. Petro Arnold Moore, affectionately known as “Pete,” was born on May 23, 1953 in Columbia, SC. He was the youngest child of the late Wallace and Ethel Gordon Moore. Petro departed this earthly life on Tuesday, April 16, 2024, at Prisma Health Heart Hospital.

Petro was educated in the public schools in Richland County, Columbia, S.C. Petro graduated from C.A. Johnson High School, Class of 1971.

Mr. Moore was baptized at an early age and joined New Ebenezer Baptist Church. Petro was very involved in Men for Kingdom, which was a prayer group known for their community involvement. Petro started working at an early age with his parents and brothers. He managed the family business, Moore’s Cleaners, along with his brothers and later opened a satellite location on Read Street in Columbia, S.C. Petro also worked for Gordon Plastering Company, a business started by his grandfather, A.P. Gordon, from 1985 until the decline in his health.

Petro was an avid race car lover and driver. He loved watching and attending races in Rockingham, N.C, Florence, S.C, and Orangeburg, S.C. There were many fond memories of his black race car, which he loved and was so proud of. When Pete was not attending drag races, he enjoyed sitting on the porch listening to Jazz music.

Petro always had a smile on his face and he never met a stranger. He loved his family and friends and most importantly, he loved serving the Lord! Petro showed joy in giving to anyone in need of prayer and giving people words of encouragement.

Petro was preceded in death by his parents, Wallace and Ethel Moore and brothers, Arthur Bernard and Wallace Alonzo Moore.

Mr. Petro Arnold Moore leaves to cherish his precious memory: his long-time companion, Sherry Henry of Columbia, S.C; sons, Bryan Dubard (Charles) Bell-Moore of Norwalk, CT and JeCory Sims-Dean of Atlanta, GA; Tamekia and Kimberly Capers of Columbia, SC, who were loved and raised like children in the home; brother, Norman Moore of Columbia, SC; sister-in-law, Evelyn Moore of Columbia, SC; granddaughter, Ashlyn Sims; Marvatus Erving, Christopher Capers, Na’Liyah Staley, Braelin Brown, Kearnstyn Staley, and Kingston Capers, all of Columbia, South Carolina, who were loved and raised as grandchildren; great-grandchildren, Syren and Syncere Capers; three nieces, one nephew, two aunts, many other loving relatives, and caring friends, all who will miss him dearly.
