

Obituary

Ms. Nochelle Denise Simmons was born on April 25, 1973, in Columbia, South Carolina. She was the oldest child of Viola Simmons and Robert Simmons. She peacefully departed this life on Tuesday, April 16, 2024, at the Palmetto Baptist Hospital, in Columbia, South Carolina.

Nochelle was educated in the public schools in Richland County school District One and was a proud graduate of A. C. Flora High School. She also furthered her education at Midland's Technical College, where she majored in EKG Technology. Nochelle was preciously employed as a dispatch operator with SCE&G and a substitute teacher with Richland School District One in Columbia, South Carolina.

Her faith journey was very important to her throughout her life. Nochelle was raised in Clement Road Church of God under the leadership of Reverend Jordan Smith. She participated in church activities such as the "Seeds of Promise" Chorus and Clement Road Missionary Society. She also had many hobbies such as spiritual poetry, any type of positive readings, and doing craft work.

Ms. Nochelle Denise Simmons leaves to cherish her loving memories: her parents, Viola and Robert Simmons; her four children, Keydriana Simmons, Rashaud Patterson, Zipporah Patterson, and Tahajji Patterson; the love of her life, John Burley; her siblings, Robert Simmons, III, Hezekiah (Vivian) Simmons, Stephanie Simmons, and Lottie Simmons; sister-in-law, Charmin Harris; nieces and nephews, Shantonna Simmons, Adrianna Simmons, Robert Simmons V, and James Simmons; a host of other loving relatives, and caring friends, all of whom will miss her dearly.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little - but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's Plan,
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss Me - But Let Me Go.
