

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

*When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not here to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes, filled with tears for me.*

I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today, while thinking of the many things we didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time you think of me, I know you'll miss me too.

When tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand That an angel came and called my name and took me by the hand

*The angel said my place was ready in heaven far above
And that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love.*

But when I walked through Heaven's gate, I felt so much at home

When God looked down and smiled at me from His great golden throne.

*He said, "This is eternity and all I've promised you."
Today my life on earth is past, but here it starts anew*

*I promise no tomorrow but today will always last
And since each day's the same day, there's no longing for the past.*

So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart,

For every time, you think of me, I'm right there in your heart.

Obituary of Mr. Marion Evans

Mr. Marion Evans, affectionately called “Michael” by many, was born April 18, 1949, in Orangeburg, South Carolina. He was the son of the late Ernest, Sr. and Mamie Evans. Marion transitioned at the Medical University of South Carolina on Monday, May 13, 2024.

“Michael” attended Dantzler Elementary School, in Santee, South Carolina. Relocating to New York City, “Michael” graduated from Dewitt Clinton High School. Following graduation, “Michael” enlisted in the United States Army, serving 10 years (active duty) as a Paratrooper and 20 years in the Army Reserves. After his tour of service ended with the military, “Michael” became employed with the United Postal Service and the New York State Department of Corrections. He loved the military life, fishing, riding his bike, and enjoyed playing a game of chess with his brothers.

In addition to his parents, “Michael” was preceded in death by his two younger brothers, Harold Evans and Lazarus Evans.

Mr. Marion Evans leaves to cherish his memory: his wife of 18 years, Christine Evans; three children, Aisha Amondi Evans, Hashim Hamdi Evans, and Amber Victoria (Adewale) Lawal; two bonus children, Cheryl Alado and Dwayne Alado; seven grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; one brothers, Ernest “Lee” Evans, Jr; sister-in-law, Barbara Mack; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and devoted friends.
