

Remember Me

To the living, I am gone, To the sorrowful, I will never return, To the angry, I was cheated, But to the happy, I am at peace, And to the faithful, I have never left. I cannot speak, but I can listen. I cannot be seen, but I can be heard. So as you stand upon a shore gazing at a beautiful sea, As you look upon a flower and admire its simplicity, Remember me. Remember me in your heart: Your thoughts, and your memories, Of the times we loved, The times we cried, The times we fought, The times we laughed. For if you always think of me, I will never have gone.

Obituary of Mr. Arthur Lucien Maurice Garrett

Arthur Lucien Maurice Garrett was born on January 9, 1975, in Cincinnati, Ohio. He is the youngest child of the late Elmer Lucien Garrett and Barbara Lyvonne Garrett. He departed this life on Sunday, May 26, 2024.

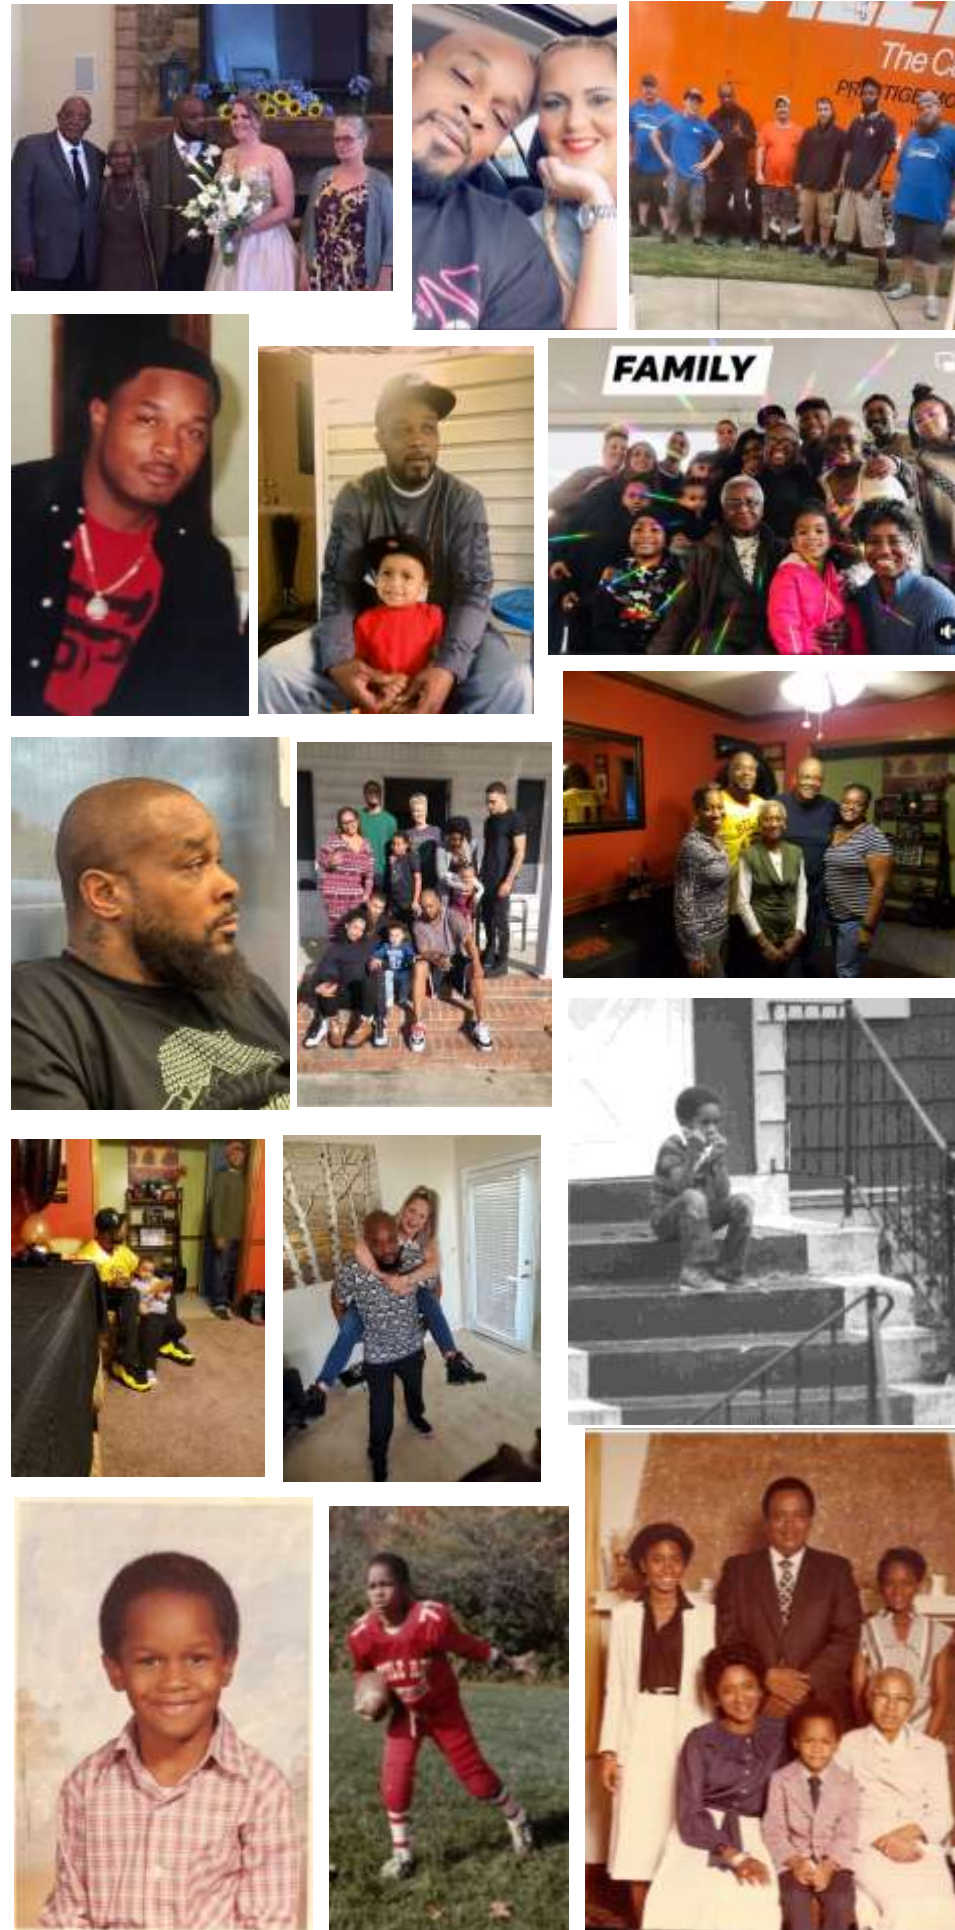

Art was educated in the public schools of Lexington County, South Carolina. After High School, Art explored many creative entrepreneurial ventures. He has owned and operated multiple successful businesses including a landscaping company, a moving company, and a custom shoe creation store. Whatever his focus was, Art always put his passion, dedication, and flair into it.

Art walked through life with a gentle strength, touching the lives of everyone he encountered. Art's laughter was large, contagious, and sweet, spreading warmth and smiles from all who knew him and had the pleasure of meeting him. He was truly a gentle giant who deeply cared for his family and friends.

He is preceded in death by his father, Elmer Luicen Garrett.

Art leaves to mourn his passing; his mother Barbara Garrett of Lexington, South Carolina; his wife Sandy Garrett; sons, Tieson Garrett of Lexington, South Carolina and Justice Mills of Columbia, South Carolina; sisters, Anita M. (Charles) Garrett of Columbia, South Carolina and Cherlyn (Bernard) Garrett-Kee of Lexington South Carolina; stepson, Jordan Clyburn; stepdaughter, Latrel Clyburn, both of Columbia, South Carolina; as well as numerous grandchildren, nieces and nephews, cousins, and other loving family members.
